DOLLARS AND SCENTS REIGN IN 1982

During 1982 Belgium will continue to highlight its renowned cuisine. The "Tourist Menu" which offers visitors an appetizer, main course and dessert for approximately $8.50 to $10.00 will be available in restaurants that display the symbol of a chef's hat in an oval surrounded by the words "Tourist Menu". Also, restaurants throughout the country will continue to offer regional specialties to acquaint visitors with those dishes that are uniquely Belgian.

Dining will always be important to people and Belgium can satisfy every culinary desire from the sumptuous to the very humble. Belgian restaurants continue to amass the largest number of Michelin stars outside France. Besides the many restaurants offering gourmet meals, there is no shortage of more modest eating places such as cafes and patisseries that serve ample sandwiches and hot dishes at very reasonable prices, from approximately $1.25 to $4.00.

Along with the renewed vigor of the American dollar resulting in an increase of 30% in visitor buying power in Belgium, the Value Added Tax on hotel accommodations was dropped from 16% to 6%, adding another 10% to the visitor's benefit. Rail discounts, Brussels city transit system one-day bargain tickets, the Brussels is Love program of benefits also offer additional savings advantages in 1982.

In addition to SABENA Belgian World Airlines which serves Brussels from Atlanta, Chicago, Detroit and New York and CAPITOL Airways which serves Brussels from New York and Los Angeles (via New York), a new carrier METRO International Airways, plans to start scheduled service to Brussels from New York on March 25, 1982.

In addition to Belgium's culinary attractions and economic benefits for visitors in 1982, a cultural menu abounds.

The city of Tournai is mounting a major exhibition from April 24 to June 30 at the Cloth Hall to celebrate the 1500th anniversary of Childeric-Clovis. Important treasures of the Merovingian Dynasty will be on loan from museums in Germany, France, England and throughout Belgium.

The prestigious music festivals of Flanders and Wallonia that take place from Spring to Fall in various Belgian cities and towns will focus, respectively, on the music of the Burgundian period and the compositions of Haydn to commemorate the 250th anniversary of his birth.

The 1982 Europalia, a broad-ranging cultural festival, which every two years is dedicated to a particular member country of the European Economic Community, this year celebrates Greece. During the months of October and November major exhibitions and performing arts programs will limn the contributions of Greece to modern Western civilization.

Flanders ties to Burgundy will be particularly highlighted in Bruges, on May 28 with a commemorative concert at Our Lady's Church and an evening pageant at 9:00 PM on August 21 devoted to "Mary of Burgundy".

In 1982 the variety of gastronomic, historic, folkloric, cultural and sporting attractions, undeniably, makes Belgium the Surprise Package of Europe.

BELGIUM BECOMES BIG BARGAIN WITH DEVALUATION OF THE FRANC

On Sunday, February 21st Belgium devalued its currency by 8.5%. Along with the 1981 reduction of the Value Added Tax on hotel rates from 16% to 6%, the new Belgian Franc rate versus the U.S. Dollar represents an incredible increase in affordability of Belgium as a tourism destination for visitors. Since 1977 the inflation rate in Belgium has been lower than most other European countries.

These factors translate to very attractive hotel costs. For example, the maximum rate for a deluxe double room with bath in the center of the city, including tax and service would be $80.00. Similar accommodations in a first class hotel would be $45.00 and for a modest establishment about $25.00

Equally attractive air fares are available from the carriers serving Brussels, Belgium's capital. SABENA Belgian World Airlines offers service to Brussels from New York, Atlanta, Chicago and Detroit. CAPITOL AIR has service from New York, with connecting service from Los Angeles and San Francisco. METRO INTERNATIONAL has service from New York.

Belgium's art cities, festivals and excellent cuisine along with its "Tourist Menu" and rail discounts for travel within the country make it a must this year.

TOURNAI MOUNTS MAJOR EXHIBITION ON "CHILDERIC-CLOVIS"

Tournai, first capital of the Kingdom of the Francs, is now celebrating the 1500th anniversary of the death of Childeric and the commencement of the reign of his son, Clovis, in 482. The important "Childeric-Clovis Exhibition at the Cloth Hall in Tournai from April 24 to June 30, 1982 will evoke the history of the region from the Roman occupation after Caesar, through the Germanic invasions that brought the Francs to power in the area of Tournai.

The Merovingian Kingdom of Childeric was the beginning of a prodigious culture. Clovis enlarged the empire to create a real Frankish domain, Francia, which became huge and powerful. According to Louis XIV this was the real cradle of France.

The Exhibition, covering also the beginning of Christianity, will present a rich series of archeological documents from several museums of Western Europe. Six to seven centuries of Tournai history will emerge along with the development of France and Western Europe. A series of conferences by world-renowned specialists will highlight the different aspects of this exhibit. Maps, drawings, photographic reproductions and an audio-visual montage will contribute to the understanding of the period.

Important treasures of the Merovingian Dynasty will be on loan from Belgian museums and those of France and Germany. Many items from the Tomb of Childeric, discovered in Tournai in 1653, will be on display. There will be an important jewel section including the works of the goldsmiths and silversmiths of the period. This is a unique opportunity for history buffs to explore this period. The Exhibition is open daily 9AM to 7PM and Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays 10AM to 1PM and 3PM to 6PM.

BELGIUM'S EUROPALIA 1982 FEATURES GREECE

The Europalia Festival organized in Belgium, every other year, is dedicated to the art and culture of a European country. From October 1 to December 2, 1982 Europalia will illustrate the Greece of today and its ancient culture that nourished Western civilization. Through the plastic arts, music, theatre, movies and literature, ancient byzantine and contemporary Greece will flourish in Brussels.

EXHIBITIONS

Three major exhibits illustrating three important periods of Greek history will be covered in "Men and Gods of Ancient Greece" and "Arts in the Cyclades", "Splendor of Byzantine Art", and "Contemporary Art" (1950 to today). Several other exhibits will encompass various aspects of the art, life and culture of Greece.

MUSIC

From the Polyphonic songs of Epirus to avant-garde music, the musical program will range over 5000 years of history; the Classical, the Ethnic and the Popular. Even the pop-electronic will be represented in Europalia's 1982 tribute to Greece and its music.

THEATRE

The theatrical program will have three parts: the participation of Greek companies and the theatre of shadows; a presentation of "Oreste" by Aeschylus, staging by Peter Stein with the Schaubuhne of Berlin; and, a Belgian program devoted to classical and contemporary plays of authors that found their inspiration in Greece.

OPERA

"Idomenea" by Mozart.

LITERATURE

Discussions, debates and lectures will be organized on contemporary authors and poets as well as international philosophical meetings and debates in universities along with an exploration of Plato's Dialogues, etc.

The Europalia Literature Prize will be awarded for the third time. A bookshop in the Hall of the Museum of Fine Arts will have books on Greek classical and contemporary literature along with magazines devoted to Greece, translations and new editions, and a brochure on contemporary Greek literature.

MOVIES

There will be a World Premier, and a retrospective of Greek movies (1950-1980) covering tragedy, mythology, and the history of Greece in world motion pictures.

TELEVISION AND RADIO will participate in Europalia on Greece with interviews, debates, co-productions, school programs, etc.

If you can't get to Greece this year, you can experience Greece in Belgium in 1982.

BRUGES COMMENORATES THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF MARY OF BURGUNDY

Mary of Burgundy, who ruled Bruges from 1477 to her untimely death as a result of a riding accident in 1482, was deeply mourned. Mary had loved Bruges and her people reciprocated the feeling. Her tomb and that of her father, Charles the Bold, which had been in the Lanchals Chapel have been restored to the choir in the center of the Church of Our Lady. This magnificent church contains a number of beautiful paintings by famous masters, along with Michaelangelo's "Virgin and Child". This priceless white marble sculpture stands in a black marble nich on the altar of the most southern nave.

Considerable restoration projects are underway, including a Van Orley triptych which will soon adorn the altar behind the mausolea of Charles and Mary. On May 28 this restored santcuary will be officially inaugurated by a special concert featuring Pro Cantione Antiqua (London) and the Belgian Trombone Octet conducted by Willy Verdievel. This event will usher in a "Burgundian Summer" that will reach its zenith on August 21 at 9:00 PM on the occasion of a unique evening procession. This procession will provide an evocation of tragic, tender and glorious moments in Mary of Burgundy's life and those of her contemporaries. Also, from August 19 to September 3, 1982 the center of Bruges will be the scene of "Burgundian Days" featuring a wide variety of events such as exhibitions on culture, folklore, an open-air banquet, sports events and performances by Burgundian groups. Though long gone from her people, Mary of Burgundy will never be forgotten by the people of Bruges.

N.B. The City of Tournai will mount a major exhibition from April 24 to June 30 at the Cloth Hall to celebrate the 1500th Anniversary of CHILDERIC-CLOVIS.

Clovis I was credited with founding the Frankish Dynasty. Clovis I (481-511 AD) was the son of Childeric (436-481 AD). Many of the Treasures of the Tomb of Childeric discovered in Tournai in 1653 will be on display. They include works of the goldsmiths and silversmiths of the Merovingian period. Important treasures of the Merovingian Dynasty will be on loan from Museums in Germany, France, England and throughout Belgium.

Further information on this major exhibition will be forthcoming.

DOLLARS AND SCENTS REIGN IN 1982

During 1982 Belgium will continue to highlight its renowned cuisine. The "Tourist Menu" which offers visitors an appetizer, main course and dessert for approximately $8.50 to $10.00 will be available in restaurants that display the symbol of a chef's hat in an oval surrounded by the words "Tourist Menu". Also, restaurants throughout the country will continue to offer regional specialties to acquaint visitors with those dishes that are uniquely Belgian.

Dining will always be important to people and Belgium can satisfy every culinary desire from the sumptuous to the very humble. Belgian restaurants continue to amass the largest number of Michelin stars outside France. Besides the many restaurants offering gourmet meals, there is no shortage of more modest eating places such as cafes and patisseries that serve ample sandwiches and hot dishes at very reasonable prices, from approximately $1.25 to $4.00.

Along with the renewed vigor of the American dollar resulting in an increase of 30% in visitor buying power in Belgium, the Value Added Tax on hotel accommodations was dropped from 16% to 6%, adding another 10% to the visitor's benefit. Rail discounts, Brussels city transit system one-day bargain tickets, the Brussels is Love program of benefits also offer additional savings advantages in 1982.

In addition to SABENA Belgian World Airlines which serves Brussels from Atlanta, Chicago, Detroit and New York and CAPITOL Airways which serves Brussels from New York and Los Angeles (via New York), a new carrier METRO International Airways, plans to start scheduled service to Brussels from New York on March 25, 1982.

- more -

In addition to Belgium's culinary attractions and economic benefits for visitors in 1982, a cultural menu abounds.

The city of Tournai is mounting a major exhibition from April 24 to June 30 at the Cloth Hall to celebrate the 1500th anniversary of Childeric-Clovis. Important treasures of the Merovingian Dynasty will be on loan from museums in Germany, France, England and throughout Belgium.

The prestigious music festivals of Flanders and Wallonia that take place from Spring to Fall in various Belgian cities and towns will focus, respectively, on the music of the Burgundian period and the compositions of Haydn to commemorate the 250th anniversary of his birth.

The 1982 Europalia, a broad-ranging cultural festival, which every two years is dedicated to a particular member country of the European Economic Community, this year celebrates Greece. During the months of October and November major exhibitions and performing arts programs will limn the contributions of Greece to modern Western civilization.

Flanders ties to Burgundy will be particularly highlighted in Bruges, on May 28 with a commemorative concert at Our Lady's Church and an evening pageant at 9:00 PM on August 21 devoted to "Mary of Burgundy".

In 1982 the variety of gastronomic, historic, folkloric, cultural and sporting attractions, undeniably, makes Belgium the Surprise Package of Europe.
