Dear Mr. Ambassador:

This letter of understanding constitutes an agreement for Washington World Group International, Inc. (WWG) to provide public relations services to the Republic of Slovenia.

MAJOR OBJECTIVES OF CONSULTING SERVICES

To publicize the economic and political achievements of the Republic of Slovenia as well as other positive aspects and policies of the country – including stability, leadership, human rights and tourism opportunities.

ACTIVITIES TO BE PERFORMED BY WASHINGTON WORLD GROUP

Arrange for five placements in newspapers or magazines which are among the top fifteen publications in the United States (list attached). One of these placements will be an interview with the Prime Minister. These placements might be in the form of 1) op-ed pieces (opposite the editorial page), prepared by WWG and signed by prominent individuals who could give authority to the piece; 2) interviews by widely-read syndicated columnists with the Prime Minister; and/or 3) articles by leading journalists. In the latter two cases, WWG would work with the writers, providing background information, briefings, talking points and other assistance.

AUTHORITY AND LIAISON

Controlling authority for this agreement rests with the President of Washington World Group International, Inc. and with the designated representative of the Republic of Slovenia. Close, continuing liaison will be maintained and ongoing work will be mutually agreed upon.

PERIOD OF SERVICE

The agreement begins on 10 March 1995 and remains in effect until all five placements have been published.

FEES AND EXPENSES

The fee for the services described above is $25,000.00, including out-of-pocket expenses.

The fee schedule is as follows:

$10,000.00 is due on 10 March 1995
$ 7,500.00 is due after two placements have been published
$ 7,500.00 is due when all five placements have been published
