Dear Enrique:

I am writing to confirm our understanding concerning representation of CEMAI in connection with legislative proposals pending in the U.S. Congress which would change the U.S. Countervailing Duty Law to treat Mexico's pricing of oil and gas products as a countervailable subsidy.

We will be happy to advise and represent CEMAI in an effort to insure that U.S. legislators and officials are aware of the adverse impact this legislation would have on both Mexico and the United States. We would of course attempt to coordinate our efforts with the efforts of other entities, including U.S. and Mexican companies and groups, which are opposed to the legislation. As discussed with you, my office and I will work as a team with Guy F. Erb (GFE Limited) in representing your interests.

Our fees for this work will be based on the time required, which will be valued in accordance with our normal hourly rates. We will send you a statement approximately every month. We will also send you statements for actual expenses which we incur on your behalf, including photocopying, long distance telephone, taxi and courier charges, and similar costs.

We will receive statements from GFE Limited based on the same factors and will forward them to you along with our statements.

I understand that your initial budget for this work by my firm and GFE Limited is $30,000, and that you expect to raise further money for this project. We will attempt to keep our charges within the budget as you set it from time to time. As we discussed, it appears likely at this time that efforts in excess of the initial budget will be needed.

If other companies also wish to express their opposition to the legislation, we will of course be pleased to work with them.

I would appreciate it if you could forward a check to cover the amount presently budgeted for our work. If it develops that the work performed comes to less than that amount, we will promptly refund the excess.

If this letter properly summarizes our arrangement, I would appreciate it if you would sign the enclosed copy and return it to me for our files.

With all cordial regards.

Sincerely yours,

Bob
