I. SCOPE OF SERVICES

A. Report Preparation

IBERC already has provided to the BGEC its economic and legal analysis of the U.S. restraint request on Bahrain's trade in Category 340/640. In advance of the negotiations, IBERC will update the legal and economic brief on Category 340/640 to include more recent U.S. production, consumption, and import data. IBERC also will prepare a Negotiator's Memorandum which, in a question and answer format, will assist Bahrain's negotiators in refuting the U.S. claim of market disruption and, thus, will be helpful either in persuading the U.S. Government to rescind its restraint request or, alternatively, convince the U.S. Government that it should provide more generous quota treatment to Bahrain.

IBERC will prepare an economic and legal brief regarding the U.S. Government's restraint request on Category 338-339/638-639 and, as well, will prepare a Negotiator's Memorandum in a question and answer format on Category 338-339/638-639 to be used by Bahrain negotiators in the negotiations.

B. Advisory Services During the Negotiations

A senior IBERC consultant will be available to advise Bahrain's negotiating team throughout the course of the January consultations in Washington.

C. Other Consultation Services

In advance of the January consultations, IBERC will conduct a review of the Standard Bilateral agreement and the Visa Agreement provided to the Bahrain government by U.S. negotiators in October. IBERC's memoranda on these draft agreements will provide recommendations to Bahrain's negotiators regarding what portions of the U.S. language should remain in those agreements and which should be changed. For each of IBERC's recommended changes, IBERC will provide a written rationale as to why the changes are appropriate.

II. PROFESSIONAL FEES

Professional fees and expenses for the services outlined in "I" above are as follows:

A.	Update legal and economic brief on Category 340/640 and provide the Negotiator's Memorandum.	US$ 2,500
B.	Preparation of the economic and legal brief on called Category 338-339/638-639 and the Negotiator's memorandum.	US$ 5,000
C.	Advisory services during the negotiations and other consultation services, including preparation of memoranda on the Standard Bilateral Agreement and the Visa Agreement.	US$ 5,000
D.	Computer costs and communications between IBERC and the BGEC and such other related direct expenses while the Bahrain Delegation is in Washington.	Not to exceed US$ 750
	TOTAL	US$13,250

IV. PAYMENT OF FEES AND EXPENSES

IBERC professional fees and expenses shall be due and payable by the BGEC within 15 days of the BGEC's receipt of an itemized invoice from IBERC.

V. THE AGREEMENT

If the terms of this proposal are acceptable to the BGEC this agreement should be signed by an authorized person in the space provided below. Upon execution, this shall become an agreement between the BGEC and IBERC. Two signed copies of this agreement have been provided. The original is for the records of the BGEC. One signed copy should be returned to IBERC.

Respectfully submitted,
