Dear Senator Zardari,

Pursuant to our various conversations, this letter of engagement sets forth the terms and conditions of representation between Locke Lord Strategies (Locke Lord) and the Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP).

Locke Lord will represent the Pakistan Peoples Party in Washington on all matters including efforts to secure free, fair, transparent and internationally monitored elections for the Islamic Republic of Pakistan's National Assembly and Provincial Assemblies and to encourage the international investigation of the assassination of Prime Minster Benazir Bhutto.

Special attention will be paid to the Executive Branch of the United States government, the US House of Representative and US Senate, and US print and electronic media.

Locke Lord will coordinate activities of consultants, lobbyists, and public relations firms engaged by the PPP to support the democratic process in Pakistan.

I will be the principal associate in charge of these matters and will direct other associates in the firm as necessary. I will serve as the contact person for the PPP and will have day-to-day substantive responsibility for the handling of all matters wherein the PPP requests assistance.

Sincerely,

Mark A. Siegel
