Dear Mr. Steenson:

I am writing to set forth the basis upon which our firm will provide legal services to the Fraser Valley Independent Shake and Shingle Producers Association. You have requested, and we have agreed, that Arnold & Porter will represent this association in connection with the Section 201 review proceeding involving red cedar shakes and shingles from Canada.

As we have discussed, you wish to adhere to a strict budget for these proceedings, although you understand that a case like this may involve unforeseen complexities with the resulting potential for cost escalation. Within the agreed upon budget of $130,000, and taking into account payments to Wesley Rickard, Inc. of up to $25,000 for their services to you, we will provide you with the services listed in Attachment A to this letter. If in our judgment, the need arises for services beyond those listed in Attachment A, we will promptly notify you and work out with you the basis on which we can provide those additional services. In any event, we will do our best to keep our fees as low as possible. It is also my practice to review carefully all Arnold & Porter time charges before preparing statements, in order to ensure that time charged to clients has been fully productive.

We also understand that you have limited administrative facilities available to you, and you would like to make the billing process as simple as possible. For your convenience, we will be happy to include in our statements to you bills for the services provided to you by the forestry consulting firm, Wesley Rickard, Inc., and to disburse to them the funds received from you for this purpose.

We understand you will be sending us retainer payments as follows: U.S. $45,000 upon signing the contract, U.S. $45,000 on or before August 15, 1988, and U.S. $40,000 on or before September 15, 1988. Our statement in the initial amount of U.S. $45,000 is enclosed.

Each month, we will send you statements for our legal fees, for our out-of-pocket expenses, and for the services provided by Wesley Rickard, Inc. Our expenses will include such items as taxi fares, long distance telephone calls, telecopying, and duplicating costs. Given your budgetary constraints, we do not plan any out of town travel.

Our fees and expenses for the budgeted services listed in Attachment A will be charged against the retainers. As statements from Wesley Rickard, Inc. come in, we will, on your behalf, pay up to $25,000 of the $130,000 retainer to Wesley Rickard, Inc. for their services to you. It is also understood, of course, that you will be responsible for paying our fees and expenses within 30 days following receipt of our statement, if we have not received the requisite retainer amounts from you at the time our statement is issued. Any unused portion of the retainers will be returned to you upon termination of the Section 201 review case.

If the understanding set forth above is accurate and acceptable to you, I would appreciate your signing a
