His Excellency Jose Llado
Ambassador
Embassy of Spain
2700 15th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20009

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

I refer to our discussions of the renegotiation of the Treaty of Friendship and Cooperation between Spain and the United States and other aspects of US-Spanish relations. You inquired whether Arnold & Porter could provide the Government and Embassy of Spain with such legal assistance and advice as they might request from time to time in connection with these matters.

The firm would be pleased to do so. We would propose to charge for our professional legal services on a quarterly basis. As I had indicated before, our hourly professional charges are approximately comparable to those of other major New York and Washington law firms. More specifically, those hourly charges presently range from $70 for junior associates to $170 for senior partners.

The firm also has a number of non-lawyer experts in various fields of economic and political analysis. Our hourly charges for their services are now $35. I expect, in view of the nature of the matters we discussed, that our firm would be able to use such experts for a major proportion of the work.
