We, the appearing parties, declare that we are free to exercise our civil right to carry out this act, and that our capacities and the entities we represent are sufficient and ample according to the law and to our own judgment. And that having seen the related documentation, and through this instrument, we agree to enter into the present ADMINISTRATIVE CONTRACT TO MANAGE IMAGE IN ORDER TO ATTRACT INVESTMENT AND TOURISM THROUGH THE DEVELOPMENT OF A STRATEGY REGARDING GUATEMALA'S LEGAL, MEDIA AND PUBLIC POLICY OBJECTIVES IN WASHINGTON, D.C., which is contained in the following clauses:

ONE: LEGAL BASIS: We enter into the present Contract in accordance with the provisions of Articles One (1), Three (3), Forty-Three (43), Forty-Four (44), Forty-Seven (47), Forty-Eight (48), Forty-Nine (49), Sixty-Five (65) and One Hundred and Two (102) of Decree No. Fifty Seven Hyphen Ninety-Two (57-92) of the Congress of the Republic; State Procurement Law; Articles Twenty (20), Twenty-Six (26), Thirty-Eight (38) and Seventy-Eight (78) Rules of the State Procurement Law, Government Decree 1056-92, as amended; Resolution No. Seven Hundred and Thirty-One Hyphen D (731-D), dated July First, Two Thousand Nine, by THE INGUAT Directorate.

TWO: JUSTIFICATION: The present Contract is justified by the need to attract foreign investment and tourism through improvement in Washington D.C., and in the various strata in the United States, of the way the Guatemalan investment climate is perceived. The importance of foreign investment lies on the high levels of international savings, as opposed to domestic savings, with which it is logical to compete for, with other countries in the Region, to obtain greater foreign investment and give rise to productive projects. On the other hand, the relevance of tourism lies in its attraction, that apart from generating foreign currency income it also creates a virtuous circle where more tourism and more investment result from an improved image.

THREE: PURPOSE: I, Maruja Reneé Acevedo Orellana, state that the purpose of the contract is to handle Guatemala's image in order to attract investment and tourism by means of strategic consultancy on Guatemala's legislative, media and public policy objectives in Washington, D.C. The present contract aims
