

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public. Finally, the Attorney General intends, at the earliest possible opportunity, to make these public documents available on the Internet on the Department of Justice World Wide Web site.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .49 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Footnote: Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

- (b) For all out-of-pocket expenditures made by us on your behalf, you shall reimburse us for our costs, upon your receipt of itemization thereof. Any production expenditures shall be subject to a standard commission of 17.65%.
2. The term of this Agreement shall commence as of April 1, 1999, and shall continue until notice of termination is given by either party. Any notice of termination by either party must be given in writing by registered or certified mail to the other party not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of termination. Upon receipt of such notice of termination, we shall cease incurring costs on this project, except such costs that are necessary to close out this project. If this Agreement is terminated, you shall be obligated to reimburse us for actual costs and fees incurred through the effective date of termination, including all of our contractual, legal and other commitments to third parties for services and materials under this Agreement.
  3. Our invoices are payable upon receipt and are considered delinquent after thirty (30) days, at which time you agree to pay us simple interest computed at one and one-half (1 1/2%) percent over the prime rate of interest in effect at Citibank, N.A., in New York City, on the amount outstanding at the end of such 30-day period, until such payment is received. You agree to reimburse us for any costs we incur (including reasonable attorney's fees) in connection with our attempts to collect any sums which are over thirty (30) days past due. In the event of a disputed charge, you shall notify us in writing of the disputed amount and reason for the dispute, and you shall pay all undisputed amounts owed while the dispute is under negotiation.
  4. We agree that any and all contracts, correspondence, books, accounts and other sources of information relating to your accounts shall be available for inspection at our office by your authorized representative during ordinary business hours upon reasonable notice to us.
  5. Upon termination of this Agreement and receipt of any outstanding payments due us, we shall transfer and make available to you or your representatives all property and materials in our possession or control which belong to you.

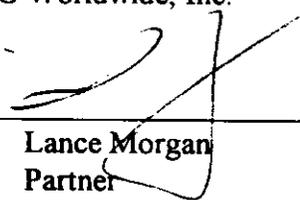

6. We agree that, in the process of providing professional services to you, you may provide sensitive confidential information, the disclosure of which would be to your detriment. We represent that we shall not use any of such information for any purpose except for your benefit under the professional services to be performed by us under this Agreement.
7. You agree to indemnify us and hold us harmless from and against any loss, damage or expense, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, sustained by us as a result of any claim or action brought against us which is based upon information, data or the materials supplied by you to us or as a result of any action, regulatory proceeding or investigation in which we are subpoenaed as a witness regarding the services provided by us hereunder.
8. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of, and subject to the jurisdiction of the courts located in, the State of New York, without regard to its conflict of laws rules.

If the above meets with your approval, we would appreciate your so indicating by signing both enclosed originals of this letter where indicated. Please return one original to us and retain the other for your files.

Very truly yours,
