

Public Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .49 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

BARBADOS

THIS AGREEMENT made the _____ day of _____ 2002 BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF BARBADOS (hereinafter referred to as "the Government") of the ONE PART and BRUCE ZAGARIS of Berliner, Corcoran Rowe, 1101 Seventeenth St, N.W Ste. 1100 Washington DC 20036 in the United States of America (hereinafter referred to as "the Consultant") of the OTHER PART.

WHEREAS IT IS AGREED as follows:

1. The Government hereby appoints the Consultant to serve with the Industry and International Business Division of the Ministry of Economic Development from the 1st of May, 2002 to the 30th day of April, 2003 and the Consultant accepts such appointment on the terms and conditions contained herein.

2. The duties of the Consultant are as follows:

- (a) the provisions of technical support for the tax treaty negotiating team, including assistance in identifying priority countries for new double taxation agreements and working with the negotiating team to provide an understanding of the tax rules of the potential treaty partners and existing treaty policy.
This may include if required, participation directly or indirectly in the treaty negotiation team;

2002/01/12/05

- (b) the development of new products areas by reviewing existing legislation and making recommendations with regard to legislative changes designed to attract new business from new and existing markets;
- (c) the monitoring of changes in the international business environment and making recommendations, where appropriate, with regard to measures required to be taken as a consequence of such changes either to protect Barbados' position or to take advantage of new opportunities as appropriate;
- (d) provide advice on developments in the United States of America.

3. (i) The Consultant shall exercise all reasonable skill, care, diligence, efficiency and economy in the discharge of his duties under this Agreement in accordance with generally accepted practices used in his profession and with professional consulting standards recognised by international professional bodies.

(ii) The Consultant shall always act, in respect of any matter relating to this Agreement or to his duties, as a faithful adviser to the Government, and shall at all times support and safeguard the Government's legitimate interests in dealing with third parties. The Consultant shall also use his utmost exertions to promote the interest of the Government.

4. (i) The Government will pay the Consultant a fee of US$37,500.00 payable in arrears in monthly instalments upon submission of an invoice setting out the activities undertaken by the Consultant in carrying out his duties, the fee payable and expenses incurred (if any). Such expenses shall be limited to telephone, facsimile, postage, computer and transportation costs. All other costs will be detailed on the bill according to the categories incurred. On request, the receipts for the reimbursable costs will be provided. The total expenses payable during the consultancy shall not exceed US$3,750.00.

(ii) The Consultant shall keep accurate and systematic accounts and records of all relevant time charges and expenses related to the execution of his duties under this Agreement in accordance with accepted accounting principles.

5. All payments due to the Consultant hereunder shall be made to the Consultant whose receipt shall be a valid and sufficient discharge of the Government's liability in each case of payment to the Consultant.

6. The terms and conditions contained in this Agreement shall be exclusive to the Consultant named herein and shall not under any circumstances extend to the provision of similar services by or the payment of remuneration to any partner, servant or agent of the Consultant.

7. If the Consultant shall be compelled by reasons of ill-health (not caused by his own misconduct) to resign his office or if at any time it shall be certified by a Medical Board appointed by the Minister that he is incapable, by reason of any infirmity of mind or body, of rendering further efficient service, he shall be paid up to the date of such resignation or certificate but he shall have no further claim in respect of his service.

8. If the Consultant shall at any time neglect or refuse or from any cause (except ill-health not caused by his own misconduct, as provided in Article 7) become unable to perform any of his duties or to comply with any duly authorised order or shall disclose any information of an official nature to any unauthorised person, or shall in any manner misconduct himself he shall be liable to summary dismissal, and on such dismissal all rights and advantages reserved to him by this Agreement shall cease.

9. (i) Any information acquired by the Consultant in the course of his duties under this Agreement regarding the policy or processes of the Government shall be treated as secret and confidential and such "confidential information" shall not be disclosed to any other person, firm or company without the authority in writing from the Government.

(ii) This restriction shall continue to apply after the termination of this Agreement without limit in point of time unless and until such policy or processes shall become public knowledge.

10. (i) Except in the case of dismissal for any cause as provided in Article 8 the Government may at any time determine the appointment of the Consultant on giving three months' notice in writing to that effect or on paying him one month's fee.

(ii) The Consultant may at any time determine his appointment by giving three months' notice in writing.

11. Any notice under this Agreement shall be in writing and may be served on the party upon whom it is to be served by sending it by registered post to the last known address of the party.
