III – Activities

11. During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities or rendered any service to any foreign principal named in Items 7, 8 and 9 of this statement? Yes.

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services.

I engaged in activities and rendered services to Idrissa Seck.

Mr. Seck is a former prime minister of Senegal. He is presently the leading opposition figure to the Senegalese government. In July 2005, he was detained in prison in Dakar, Senegal days after announcing that he was forming an opposition slate for the National Assembly elections. The detention was politically motivated. It lasted until February 7, 2006.

On April 4, 2006, Mr. Seck announced he would be a candidate for President of Senegal in the election scheduled for February 2007.

During this six-month reporting period, I contacted members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate whose positions indicated a policy interest in Africa or in human rights. I contacted the United States State Department desk officer for Senegal, and the Charge d'Affairs at the U.S. Embassy in Dakar. I contacted staff for Africa policy at the White House National Security Council (NSC).

The contacts with members of Congress were by telephone calls and emails with their staffs. The contacts with State Department, Embassy, and an NSC official were by telephone calls and emails.

The content of the contacts included discussions of (1) a proposed visit by Mr. Seck to the U.S., (2) the conduct of the Senegalese government towards opposition figures, including Mr. Seck, and towards the press; and (3) whether the Senegalese government would conduct full and fair elections in 2007, fully respecting basic political rights of Senegalese voters and candidates.

The purpose of the contacts was to request some of the contacted persons to meet with Mr. Seck to learn more about current Senegalese political, economic, social and human rights issues. The further purpose was to increase awareness of U.S. policymakers about abuses of power and violations of human rights by the Senegalese government and particularly about risk that the Senegalese government would not conduct full and fair elections in 2007. Among risks addressed was the silencing of opposition expression by media and by candidates through the oppressive use of police intimidation, unjust prosecution, jailing, and lawsuits. A further risk addressed was the possibility of the government unfairly changing the rules of election; for example, by eliminating the requirement of a two-person runoff in the event no candidate attains a majority in the initial election..

I contacted counsel for the Millenium Challenge Corporation (MCC). The content of the contact was discussion of MCC's response to my Freedom of Information Act request regarding Senegal's MCC proposal. The purpose of the contact was to gain information on the proposal that could be used by Mr. Seck and the Senegalese people generally to analyze, evaluate, and publicly discuss the merits of the proposal.

CRM/REGISTRATION UNIT
2006 OCT 31 PM 2:00

INSERT

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity as defined below?      Yes.

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If this registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

I engaged in such political activity for Idrissa Seck.

My activity with staff of the United States Congress, State Department, Embassy, NSC and MCC was limited to that described in Item 11 above. This activity may be characterized as political in the sense that Mr. Seck is now a candidate for President of Senegal and the people I contacted were U.S. public officials. My contacts sought to influence U.S. policy towards Senegal in the following directions: (1) towards condemnation of political repression in the form of police intimidation, abusive prosecutions (particularly for treason and defamation), jailings, and lawsuits against the media and opposition candidates ; (2) against the unfair changing of 2007 election rules for the sole purpose of perpetuating power of the ruling incumbents, for example elimination of runoff in the event no candidate receives a majority.

I did not arrange, sponsor or deliver speeches, lectures, or radio or TV broadcasts.
