REPORT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO THE
CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES ON THE
ADMINISTRATION OF THE FOREIGN AGENTS
REGISTRATION ACT OF 1938, AS AMENDED,
FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR 1978

TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED:

I have the honor to report on the administration of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, pursuant to Section 11 of the Act (22 U.S.C. 621), which requires the Attorney General from time to time to report to the Congress concerning the administration of the Act, as well as the nature, source and content of political propaganda disseminated or distributed by agents of foreign principals registered under the Act.

It has been the policy of the Department since 1950 to prepare a report each year. This report covers the administration and enforcement of the Foreign Agents Registration Act for the calendar year 1978.

The format of this year's report has been modified by including in the text of the report a listing according to geographical area or nationality field of registrants whose statements were in an active status at any time during the calendar year 1978. The text of the report now includes the identity of the foreign principal and a description of the activities engaged in by the agent including reported receipts. In addition there is included a description of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

During the year 1978, the Department received 134 new registration statements and terminated 61 registrations, leaving a total of 663 active registrations on file as of December 31, 1978. Individuals acting as officials or employees or rendering assistance to a registrant for or in the interest of the latter's foreign principal filed 616 short-form registration statements under the Act, bringing the present total of active short-form registration statements to 5,709.

In this reporting year, the staff of the Registration Unit reviewed over 1,312 supplemental statements and processed approximately 15,000 pieces of both incoming and outgoing correspondence which involved other government agencies, registrants and the general public. There were 137 agreements with new foreign principals reported by agents already registered under the Act.

ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

The Registration Unit continued to conduct in-depth inspections of a broad spectrum of registrants pursuant to Section 615 of the Act. During the year, 9 such inspections of books and records were conducted by the staff. While in a number of cases it was determined that disclosures were inadequate thereby necessitating the submission of amendments to registration statements, in several cases, a review of the documents obtained during the inspections appear to suggest violations of the Act which may warrant seeking judicial relief.

The most significant case brought during the year, Attorney General v. American Chilean Council, et al. (Civil Action No. 78-2379), which was filed in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in December, 1978, alleges the defendants violated the Act by willfully failing to disclose their true foreign principal, the Chilean Government, on whose behalf they had been heavily involved in lobbying for military sales and assistance. The suit seeks preliminary and permanent injunctions restraining and enjoining the defendants from acting as agents of the Pinochet Government or any other foreign principal while in violation of the Act and mandatory injunctions requiring the defendants to notify the public of this action by publishing advertisements in newspapers in Washington, D.C., and in New York City. This action is currently awaiting resolution.

In addition, the Department in Attorney General v. The Lewis Company, Limited and Bud Lewis (Civil Action No. 78-0078-HP) commenced an action in the United States District Court for the Central District of California against the defendants for failing to file in a timely fashion any of the twenty-five supplemental statements required to be filed. This action was resolved by the Department accepting a consent decree from the defendants which requires the defendants to execute and file supplements to registration statements within the time limits set forth under Section 612(b) of the Act and requires the officers and directors of the Company to plan, institute, supervise and execute the supervision and management of personnel of the Company necessary to comply with the requirements of the Act.

In July 1977, the Department filed an action, Attorney General v. Casey, Lane & Mittendorf, et al. (Civil Action No. 77-1272) in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, which alleged the defendants had violated the Act by filing false and misleading supplemental registration documents in connection with their representation of the South African Sugar Association and the South Africa Foundation. The complaint alleged the defendants acted in concert in willfully concealing from required filings their activities in providing certain members of the United States House of Representatives and congressional aides with money and free overseas travel. This case was resolved in August 1978 with the filing of consent decrees by the terms of which, John R. Mahoney and the South Africa Foundation were permanently enjoined from violating the Act and were required to file with the Department amended supplemental registration statements covering the period January 1, 1970 through the date of the order, setting forth true and complete information regarding all material activities engaged in on behalf of their respective foreign principals. The causes of action were dismissed as to the remaining defendants.

In June, 1977, the Department filed an action for injunction in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in a case styled Attorney General v. Horatio Daniel Lofredo, et al. (Civil Action No. 77-1106) alleging that the defendants had failed to register as required by the Act. The complaint alleged that Lofredo and Olga Talamante as the representatives of the Information Bureau of the Argentine Commission for Human Rights disseminated political propaganda and engaged in other activities intended to influence United States policies toward the Government of Argentina. In June 1978, the Court signed a consent order and judgment barring the defendants from all future violations of the Foreign Agents Registration Act. In addition, the order required the defendants to notify in writing all persons whom the defendants contacted concerning military aid appropriations for Argentina of the true nature of their relationship to the Argentina Commission for Human Rights.

In 1977, the Department filed its brief with the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in Attorney General v. Trinidad and Tobago Industrial Development Corporation et al. (No. 76-2126). Defendants appealed the District Court's granting of plaintiff's motion for summary judgment charging them with failing to make timely filings and failing to comply with the labeling and filing requirements of the Act relating to the dissemination of political propaganda. In January 1978, the Court of Appeals heard argument in this case and in a per curiam opinion affirmed the judgment of the District Court in all respects.

In addition, various pre-trial motions have been argued and discovery has proceeded in two cases, one case styled, Attorney General v. The Irish People, Inc. (Civil Action No. 76-1518), United States District Court for the District of Columbia, seeks a mandatory injunction requiring the defendant to register as an agent of a foreign principal pursuant to Section 612 of the Act and a permanent injunction enjoining the defendant from further violating the Act. The Irish People, Inc., owns, publishes and distributes a weekly newspaper, The Irish People and allegedly has received approximately $45,000, free office space, telephone service, as well as the services of officers and members of the Irish Northern Aid Committee, which is registered as the agent of the Northern Aid Committee, Belfast.

In the other case styled, Attorney General v. Irish Northern Aid Committee (Civ. 77-708), United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, the Department commenced an action in February 1977 against the defendant for failing to make full disclosure of its activities in its statements filed under the Act and for failing to comply with the Act's provisions regarding the dissemination of "political propaganda".

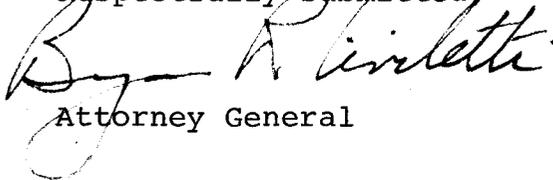

Further, Unit personnel continued to conduct field conferences in order to assist new registrants in fully meeting their reporting obligations under the Act.

The Department also has retained the practice of distributing copies of registration statements and supplements thereto to interested departments and agencies of the Federal Government.

The principal purpose of Congress in enacting the Foreign Agents Registration Act was to ensure that the Government and the people of the United States would be informed of the identity of persons engaging in propoganda activities and other activities for or on behalf of foreign governments, foreign political parties, and other foreign principals. To achieve this purpose, Congress requires public disclosure by such persons in order that their statements and actions may be appraised in the light of their associations and activities. The Department of Justice in fulfilling its responsibilities under the Act relies upon its program of inspections pursuant to Section 615 (22 U.S.C. 615), its normal sources of information and upon the investigative efforts of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Registration under the Act does not imply recognition by the United States Government either of the de jure existence or legality of the foreign principal, nor does registration indicate approval by the United States Government of the propoganda material disseminated or of the activities of the registered agent.

Respectfully submitted,

Attorney General
