* Payments to Cunningham & Walsh, Inc. for advertising and associated production costs represent expenditure on our advertising campaign for 1964/65. We have maintained such advertising programs over recent years; the amount spent on these programs varies from year to year, according to the availability of funds for this purpose. Cunningham & Walsh, Inc. acts as our advertising agency and is responsible for carrying into effect the advertising campaign approved by our headquarters in Australia. There is no formal contractual arrangement with the agency, which looks after our account on the usual basis and collects its commission arising from the placement of advertising.
