The following should be added in response to Item 15(a):

The professional services provided on behalf of the West Mexico Vegetable Distributors Association by Powell, Goldstein, Frazier & Murphy, a law firm, involved assistance in the preparation of briefs for filing in Southwest Florida Winter Vegetable Growers Ass'n v. United States, No. 80-4-00577 (U.S. Court of International Trade). The services provided by Richard L. Simmons involved consulting with Registrant on the issues raised in the briefs filed in the Southwest Florida Winter Vegetables case.

The "various consultants in connection with the Department of Commerce Investigation Docket No. 122015" referred to in response to Question 15(a) under Canadian Softwood Lumber Committee were as follows: Professor Walter J. Mead, Professor of Economics at the University of California, and Dr. F. M. Scherer, Professor of Economics at Swarthmore College, rendered professional services by providing advice to and assisting the Registrant in connection with the preparation of briefs and other materials submitted to the Department of Commerce on behalf of the Canadian Softwood Lumber Committee in connection with the countervailing duty investigation in Docket No. 122015; Verner, Liipfert, Bernhard and McPherson, a Washington, D.C. law firm, and Professor John H. Jackson, who is a professor at the University of Michigan Law School and a consultant to Registrant (and who has previously filed a Short-Form Registration Statement), rendered professional services by providing legal advice to and assisting the Registrant in connection with the proceedings before the Department of Commerce relating to the countervailing duty investigation in Docket No. 122015.

The undersigned swear(s) or affirm(s) that he has (they have) read the information set forth in this amendment and that he is (they are) familiar with the contents thereof and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his (their) knowledge and belief.
