The Honorable Antonio Carlos Lemgruber
President
Banco Central do Brasil
Brasilia, D.F.

Dear Mr. President:

It has been requested that we provide legal services to the relevant agencies of the Government of Brazil in connection with the negotiations relating to Phase III of the restructuring of the Brazilian external debt. We shall be honored to do so.

It is agreed that we will be compensated for our services at our regular and ordinary rates (which range from $90 per hour for the most junior associates to $220 per hour for senior partners) which will be based primarily on the professional and support staff time in fact expended in providing these services. We will render our statements monthly. Those statements will include such detail as is necessary for you to verify their propriety. You will in the ordinary course render payment within 15 days through such payment channel as you may select.

It is also agreed that we will be compensated at cost for all actual disbursements made with respect to these matters for the benefit of the Government of Brazil, including such expenditures as telephone and telex, travel costs, printing and reproduction, and actual and reasonable expenditures by professional and support staff for accommodations, meals and similar incidentals while away from Washington.

It is contemplated that Arnold & Porter will cooperate in the establishment and maintenance of the offices, staff and equipment in New York which will be required for the negotiations. This may include the provision of such matters as computer services, operators, English language secretaries and communication facilities in New York. As to these we will be compensated for the actual cost.

Please indicate by return communication that this understanding is acceptable to you.

We are honored to work with you in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

ARNOLD & PORTER
