ITEM 11: ACTIVITIES OF JETRO Los Angeles
(July 1, 2014 – December 31, 2014)

The Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO), established by a special law in Japan, is an independent administrative agency under the supervision of the Government of Japan, dedicated to promoting mutually beneficial trade and economic relations between Japan and other countries.

In the United States, JETRO currently maintains offices in New York, San Francisco, Chicago, Los Angeles, Houston, and Atlanta. These offices provide information relating to the Japanese economy and business as well as U.S.-Japanese economic and trade relations and engage in various activities to promote trade and direct investment between Japan and the United States. JETRO offices in the United States are believed to serve similar functions as those of the United States Trade Center (of the U.S. Department of Commerce) established in Japan.

As the Los Angeles-based office of JETRO, JETRO Los Angeles provides to public officials, corporations, associations, individuals and any other interested parties information and materials related to various aspects of Japanese economy and business as well as U.S.-Japanese economic and trade relations. JETRO Los Angeles also monitors the development of U.S. economic and market conditions for JETRO.
