On behalf of yourself and other holders of German Reichsbanknotes ("RBNs") which were sold in 1923-4 to Taiwanese citizens by the government of Japan, you have requested Patton, Boggs & Blow ("PB&B") to assist in obtaining redemption and payment of these obligations by the government of Japan.

You have indicated that at the time of sale, Japan promised to exchange RBNs for Taiwanese yen with interest in ten years. This agreement has not been honored. Despite repeated attempts to find a way to settle the claims arising out of these obligations, the government of Japan has failed to make payment. You also have advised that a suit has been instituted by yourself and other United States citizen holders of RBNs against the government of Japan in the United States District court for the District of Columbia seeking a money judgment for the breach of the payment obligation.

You have requested our services on behalf of yourself and on behalf of the Taiwanese Reichsbanknote Creditors Association ("TRCA") which represents all remaining RBN holders in Taiwan. You warrant that you are fully authorized by the TRCA to retain this firm and to pay its fees for all services rendered. In this regard, you agree to furnish to PB&B resolution of the Board of Directors of TRCA expressly authorizing retention of PB&B on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

We agree to assist in dealings with the government of Japan in attempting to secure judgment and make payment to current holders of the RBNs. We will use our offices to retain a CPA firm and other competent experts to conduct necessary audits and monetary evaluations. We will work to secure a bank to act as the one receptacle for all RBNs. We will also work with the proper officials of the United States government in attempting to enlist the support of the government for this effort.

- A. During that period of time between March 28, 1994 and March 30, 1994, Hecht, Huddleston, Boggs & Lin shall personally meet and confer jointly regarding the status and progress of work and services to be performed under this agreement. In the event Lin, in his sole discretion, determines either that (1) the work and services to be performed under this agreement have not been substantially performed, or (2) further work and services are not warranted, then, in either such event, Lin shall have the absolute right forthwith to terminate this agreement and upon such termination no party to this agreement shall be under any further liability. Such notice of termination shall be in writing and shall be transmitted by Lin to Patton, Boggs & Blow by certified mail, return receipt requested on or before 5:00 p.m. Washington, D.C. time on March 31, 1994. The parties agree and understand that a member of the Board of Directors of the Association may join in such meeting.

You shall pay to this office the following sums:

- A. The sum of $26,668.00 upon execution of this agreement;
- B. The sum of $13,333.00 on March 1, 1994;
- C. If this agreement is not terminated as herein provided, the further sum of $13,333.00 on April 1, 1994;
- D. If this agreement is not terminated as herein provided, the further sum of $13,333.00 on May 1, 1994; and
- E. If this agreement is not terminated as herein provided, the further sum of $13,333.00 on June 1, 1994.

Expenses for entertainment and travel shall not be incurred without the prior written approval of Mr. Ye-Shih Lin on behalf of TRCA.

In addition to the legal fees, we will bill for out-of-pocket costs and expenses that we incur in performing services.

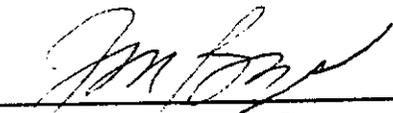

PATTON, BOGGS & BLOW

These include photocopying, messenger service, long distance telephone and facsimile, computer research, and retention of a CPA firm and other competent experts to conduct necessary audits and monetary evaluations.

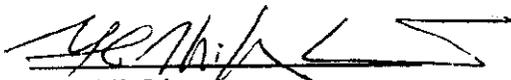

In assuming representation, we are not aware of any conflicts of interest that would interfere with our representation of TRCA. Should a conflict arise in the course of our representation, however, we reserve the right to limit the scope of our legal services to avoid such a conflict, or if necessary, to withdraw after taking steps to assure that you are properly and adequately represented. If there be a termination of services or a withdrawal, then in such case, we will rebate to you proportionately any prepaid fees.

If the terms and conditions are acceptable, we would appreciate your acknowledging acceptance of them by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this memorandum.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hale Boggs, Jr.
