Dear Dra. de Margulis:

Thank you for retaining Patton Boggs LLP to represent Fogade in connection with matters involving Fogade's ownership and related claims with respect to the Eastern National Bank in Miami, Florida. We are to assist officials of Fogade and others as directed. We look forward to working with you on this engagement.

To ensure that Fogade and we have a common understanding of the terms of our representation and to comply with the code of professional responsibility for the jurisdictions in which we practice, I have enclosed a statement describing the standard terms of engagement for legal services to be provided by Patton Boggs LLP. The terms of engagement cover such matters as our procedure for handling potential conflicts of interest, fees, costs and expenses, billing arrangements and terms of payment. Please review the document carefully to see if it comports with your understanding.

This letter supplements and modifies the enclosed terms of engagement. If you have any questions concerning the matters discussed in either document, please contact me promptly so that I may address them with you.

I will be primarily responsible for the work done on behalf of Fogade. I anticipate that Donald Moorehead, Joseph Passaic, Thomas O'Donnell, associates and legal assistants will assist in the matter under my supervision.

As explained more fully in the terms of engagement, we will determine our legal fees based on our standard hourly billing rates in effect when the work is performed and the number of hours worked by each attorney. Our hourly rates for attorneys who are likely to perform services on Fogade's behalf range from $610 to $290. My billing rate is $610 per hour. Generally, we adjust our billing rates for partners in January and those of our associates in October. In addition to our fees for legal services, we also charge separately for certain costs and expenses as described in the enclosed statement.

If these terms and conditions, including those set forth in the terms of engagement, meet with your approval, I would appreciate your acknowledging acceptance of both documents by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. If you have any questions about these terms or would like to discuss them, please call me as soon as possible so as not to impede our commencing work on your behalf.

We look forward to working with Fogade to achieve a successful result.

Very truly yours,

Standard Terms of Engagement for Legal Services

We appreciate your selection of our Firm to represent you. The purpose of this statement is to provide you with important information about the scope of this engagement, our fees and billing policies, and other terms that will govern our relationship. While we do not wish to begin this relationship on an unduly formal footing, it has been our experience that this statement is helpful to both the client and the Firm.

Unless modified by the engagement letter forwarded along with this enclosure, this statement sets forth the standard terms of our engagement as your lawyers. We therefore ask that you carefully review it to ensure that it comports with your understanding of our respective responsibilities. If you have any questions concerning the matters discussed below, please contact us promptly so that we may address them with you. We suggest that you retain a copy of this statement with your signed copy of the accompanying engagement letter, as these terms will be an integral part of our agreement with you.

The Scope of Our Engagement

The accompanying engagement letter describes the work we are to perform on your behalf. We want you to have a clear understanding of the legal services we will provide, and encourage you to review the letter and to discuss with us any questions you may have concerning these services.

We will at all times act on your behalf to the best of our ability. During the course of our representation, you may seek our professional opinion regarding the likely outcome of your legal matters. Any expressions (solicited or otherwise) on our part concerning such possible outcomes are expressions of our best professional judgment, but are not guarantees.

Before we begin representing a particular client, we try to determine whether there are any conflicts of interest that would interfere with our representation of that client's interests. Should we determine in the course of our representation that a conflict has arisen, we will immediately notify you. We similarly ask you to notify us if you become aware of any potential conflicts of interest. If either you or we conclude that our representation should or must be terminated, we will do our best to protect your interests by assisting in providing a smooth transition to new counsel.

It is our policy that we represent only the person or entity that is specifically identified in our accompanying engagement letter and not any affiliates of that person or entity. This means that if you are a corporation or partnership, or governmental agency or department, our engagement does not include representation of any parents, subsidiaries or affiliates, or other agencies or departments. Nor does it include representation of any employees, officers, directors, shareholders of the corporation or partners of the partnership, or agency or department, or commonly owned corporations, joint ventures or other corporate, governmental or contractual affiliates or partnerships. If you are an association, our representation does not include representation of any of your individual members.

Accordingly, for conflict of interest purposes, by signing the enclosed engagement letter, you are agreeing that we may represent another client with interests adverse to any such affiliate or individual association member without obtaining your further consent. Whether we will do so will depend on several factors, including the jurisdiction in which the representation will be undertaken and whether (i) the adverse matter is the same as, or substantially related to, the matter on which the Firm is representing you; (ii) there is a risk of adverse use or unauthorized disclosure of confidences or secrets obtained during our representation of you; (iii) the representation likely will have a material adverse effect on your financial condition; or (iv) the other client would be adverse to an entity which is your "alter ego."

We also wish to emphasize that Patton Boggs LLP provides a wide array of legal services to many clients around the world. These services include legislative and administrative representation on matters that may affect your interests, directly or indirectly. Therefore, as a condition of our undertaking to represent any client on a particular matter as described in our accompanying engagement letter, we ask each of our clients to waive objection to any conflict of interest that might be deemed to be created by our representation of other clients in legislative or administrative policy matters that are unrelated to the specific representation we have been asked to undertake on their behalf. Your waiver will permit us to represent another client in advocating a change in law or policy in areas such as environmental or business regulation, international trade, health care, or taxation, even if the policy we advocate would or might have a direct or indirect adverse impact upon your interests. It is also possible that some of our current or future clients will have disputes with you during the time we are representing you. We therefore also ask each of our clients to agree that we may continue to represent or may undertake in the future to represent existing or new clients in any matter that is not substantially related to our work for you, even if the interests of such clients in those unrelated matters are directly adverse to yours. We agree, however, that your prospective consent to conflicting representation shall not apply in any matter that is substantially related to the subject matter of our representation of you, or as to which we have obtained from you sensitive, proprietary or other confidential information of a non-public nature that, if known to any other such client of ours, could be used by such client to the material disadvantage of your interests. We emphasize that the consent requested covers only matters that are unrelated to the work for which you are currently engaging us, and we would not undertake any representation that is related in any material way to the current matter. In all cases, we will preserve the confidentiality of all non-public information that you provide us. Your signature on the attached engagement letter will constitute your agreement to the waivers requested in this paragraph. (We recognize that, in certain jurisdictions, governmental agencies, unlike private parties, may not consent to adverse representation by its counsel even in unrelated matters.)

It is also our policy that the attorney-client relationship will terminate upon our completion of any services that you have retained us to perform. We hope, of course, that you will choose to retain our Firm to perform further or additional services. Should you do so, our attorney-client relationship will be re-established subject to these terms of engagement, as they may be supplemented at that time.

Who Will Provide the Legal Services

Your representation will be supervised by the principal attorney specified in the accompanying engagement letter. Subject to the principal attorney's supervision, other lawyers, in-house consultants and/or legal assistants (paralegals) in the Firm may perform services on your behalf. The staffing decisions are made by the principal attorney with the objective of rendering timely and cost-effective services to you. Whenever practicable, we will advise you of the names of those attorneys, in-house consultants and legal assistants who work on your matters.

How Fees Will Be Set

Fees for services rendered will be based on the reasonable value of those services as determined in accordance with the codes of professional responsibility for the jurisdictions in which we practice. Fees will be based primarily on our standard hourly billing rates in effect at the time the work is performed and the numbers of hours worked. Each attorney, legal assistant (paralegal), law clerk, and in-house consultant is assigned a standard hourly billing rate, based on the person's experience, years of practice, special expertise, and professional achievement. The accompanying engagement letter details the current billing rates of the persons most likely to perform the primary services on your behalf. The Firm typically adjusts these rates on an annual basis to reflect current levels of legal experience, changes in overhead costs and other factors.

Time for which a client will be charged will include, among other things, telephone and office conferences with the client, witnesses, consultants, court personnel and others; conferences among our legal personnel; factual investigations; legal research; preparation of responses to clients' requests for us to provide information to their auditors; drafting of letters, pleadings, briefs, memoranda and other documents; travel time; and time in depositions, other discovery proceedings and in court. We charge our time in units of one quarter of an hour.

We are often requested to estimate the amount of fees and costs likely to be incurred in connection with a particular matter. Whenever possible we will furnish an estimate based upon our professional judgment, but always with a clear understanding that it is not a maximum or fixed fee quotation. All estimates are subject to unforeseen circumstances and are by their nature inexact.

In rare cases, we will consider providing legal services on a contingent fee basis. Any contingent fee arrangement must be reflected in a written contingent fee agreement approved by our Contingent Fee Review Committee and our Executive Committee.

Costs and Expenses

In addition to our fees for legal services, we also charge separately for certain costs and expenses incurred in performing those services. These expenses may include costs of photocopying, messenger and delivery service, computerized research, travel, long-distance telephone calls, telecopying, filing fees, staff overtime expenses and other similar costs and expenses. Certain of these items may be charged at more than our direct cost to cover our overhead. Unless special arrangements are made at the outset, fees and expenses of experts and consultants will be the responsibility of, and will be billed directly to, the client.

Our policy requires other out-of-pocket charges in the amount of $1,000 or more to be billed and paid by you to the Firm before the supplier can be paid. Because our ability to render legal services on your behalf is often dependent upon the services of these suppliers, prompt payment of these invoices is particularly important.

We reserve the right to make at your expense and retain copies of all documents generated or received by us in the course of our representation. When you request documents from us, copies that we generate shall also be made at your expense, including both professional fees for time expended in reviewing files to be copied and reproduction costs.

Billing Arrangements and Terms of Payment

We will bill you on a regular basis, ordinarily each month, for both fees and costs and expenses. We generally send our statements in the second half of the month following the month to which the bill relates. Our statements are payable upon presentation. If any monthly statement is not paid in full within thirty days of its date, then we may assess a late charge on the unpaid balance at the rate of 1.0% per month until full payment is made.

We will notify you promptly if your account becomes delinquent, and you agree to bring the account or the advance deposit current when so notified. If the delinquency continues and you do not arrange satisfactory payment terms, we reserve the right to postpone or defer providing additional services or to withdraw from the representation and pursue collection of your account. If collection activities are necessary, you agree to pay to us any costs we may incur in collecting the debt, including court costs, filing fees and a reasonable attorney's fee.

Termination of Representation

You may terminate our representation at any time, with or without cause, by notifying us. If such termination occurs, upon your request, we will promptly return to you any papers or property that you have given to us, subject to our rights, where permitted by applicable rules of professional conduct, to retain such papers or property as security for the payment of any outstanding fees, costs or expenses. We will retain our own work-product pertaining to the case for a reasonable period of time after such termination. It is our general policy not to retain copies of files or other records relating to an engagement for more than five years after completion of the services you have asked us to perform. Thereafter, we destroy those files unless the client tells us otherwise. If you want us to keep files for a longer period of time, please tell us. Your termination of our services will not affect your responsibility for payment of legal services rendered and costs and expenses incurred before termination and in connection with an orderly transition of the matter.

We are subject to the rules of professional responsibility for the jurisdictions in which we practice, which list several types of conduct or circumstances that require or allow us to withdraw from representing a client, including for example: nonpayment of fees or costs, misrepresentation of or failure to disclose material facts, action contrary to our advice, conflict of interest with another client or, if in our judgment, any fact or circumstance would render our continuing representation unlawful or unethical. If withdrawal ever becomes necessary, we will take all reasonable measures to ensure a smooth transition to new counsel. Your signature on the engagement letter accompanying this statement constitutes your agreement not to contest our motion to withdraw from any court or administrative proceeding in these circumstances.

Insurance Coverage

It is possible that you may have insurance policies relating to a matter with respect to which you request our assistance. You should carefully check all policies and, if coverage may be available, notify the insurance company about the matters as soon as possible. We do not undertake any responsibility to advise you as to the existence, applicability or availability of insurance coverage for any of the matters to be handled by us unless you have provided us with copies of your policies of insurance and expressly request our advice as to potential coverage under those policies. If an insurance company undertakes the payment of any portion of our statements, you will still remain responsible for any amounts not paid by the insurance company.
