Re: Engagement of Squire Patton Boggs LLP

Dear Minister Mohammed:

We thank you for the opportunity to represent the Ministry of Foreign Affairs for the Government of Kenya with respect to Kenya's status designation under the United States Trafficking in Persons (TIP) annual program review. As you know Kenya has been designmated a Tier 2 level country for two consecutoive years under this program. Without a waiver from the Secretary of State respecting its efforts to improve conditions in 2014, the designation of Kenya as a Tier 3 level country in the TIP Program is automatic, and would result in a cutoff of all non-humanitarian and other forms of assistance from the US Government and in formal opposition of the US Government to approval of IBRD organization loans, grants and other support.

Our work will consist of an intense 3 month effort gathering all relevant materials on Kenya's extensive efforts during 2014 to address the incidence of Trafficking in Persons (TIP) in Kenya, preparing and presenting this material to officials of the United States Government, and advocating for a waiver from the Secretary of State of the United States to avoid to avoid Tier 3 status for 2015 by June of this year when final TIP designations are made by the US Government.

intended to achieve a better understanding between us. It is governed by the law of the jurisdiction from which I received my license to practice law. We request that you review this agreement carefully. By proceeding with this engagement you will be indicating to us that you have done so. It is important that you review and understand the terms of our relationship, such as the section on "Conflicts of Interest." For many of our clients from nations other than the United States, the section on "Conflicts of Interest" makes our agreement on conflicts similar if no identical to the ethics rules for lawyers in your country.

Our hourly rates for associates, partners and non-attorney personnel throughout the United States currently range from $185 for new associates to $1,210 or higher for our most senior partners and from $85 for new project assistants to $420 for experienced senior paralegals, with most non-attorney billing rates falling within the range of $120 to $325. However, to assure a predictable budget for this intensive effort, our fees will be based on a retainer for the period April 1 to June 30 for the team of professionals devoting time to this matter, plus expenses incurred in the performance of our work on your behalf. Senior Partner David Dunn will lead this effort on your behalf, with on the ground support in Kenya from international policy advisor Richard Griffiths, and in the Washington advocacy effort by Mr. Dunn, Robert Kapla and Stacy Swanson.

Based on our current understanding of the proposed representation we have established a schedule of three payments totaling $135,000, with the first payment of $45,000 payable on the effective date of this engagement, the second payment of $45,000 plus any accrued and itemized expenses payable on May 1, and the final payment of $45,000 plus any accrued and itemized expenses paid on June 1, 2015.

Any of the following alternative methods for acceptance of this engagement agreement will be effective: (i) signing and returning the copy of this letter that is enclosed for that purpose, or (ii) sending us a letter or e-mail clearly referencing this engagement agreement and agreeing to it. However, even if you accept this engagement agreement by method (ii) to insure our immediate initiation of work on your behalf in this time sensitive matter, I would appreciate it if you would confirm your acceptance by countersigning the enclosed copy of this letter and returning it to me. If you do not agree with one or more of the provisions of the engagement agreement, please contact me so that we can try to address your concerns. If we do not receive a written objection within two weeks of our beginning work on this matter, you will be bound by this engagement agreement (although, as explained in the attached Standard Terms, you can terminate our services at any time). Of course, if you have any questions or concerns regarding the foregoing, please call me.

You should also feel free to consult with independent counsel before signing. Throughout our relationship, we want you to be satisfied with the professional services that we perform on your behalf. Accordingly, we encourage you to contact us just as soon as you have any questions or concerns regarding our services or our fees.
