 ORIGINATOR/REGISTRATION UNIT

His Excellency Adel Al-Jubeir
 Ambassador
 Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia
 601 New Hampshire Avenue, NW
 Washington, D.C. 20037

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

We are pleased and honored that you, as Ambassador of the Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia (hereinafter the "Embassy"), representing the Embassy, have chosen to engage Hogan & Hartson L.L.P. (hereinafter Hogan & Hartson) to represent the Embassy in providing strategic and legal advice on general foreign policy and related issues.

This letter is intended to formalize our retention as required by applicable Rules of Professional Conduct. It sets forth how we propose to staff the matter, describes the billing arrangement, and addresses certain conflict of interest understandings and other aspects of this engagement.

I will have primary responsibility for our representation of the Embassy, with assistance from others as required. Hogan & Hartson will provide its services on the basis of a six-month total retainer of $300,000, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. It is anticipated that this retainer will cover all general matters where Hogan & Hartson advises or represents the Embassy at your request. However, whenever an assignment will, in the judgment of the Embassy and Hogan & Hartson, require substantial time, it shall be deemed a "specific matter," and a separate billing arrangement--i.e., not within the retainer--will be established for such specific legal matters by mutual agreement.

Hogan & Hartson will bill the Embassy in two installments; first, 50% of the total retainer ($150,000) will be due upon signing of this Agreement, and a second payment of 50% ($150,000) on October 1, 2007.

As you know, Hogan & Hartson represents and in the future will represent other clients that are or may be involved in transactions or have other contacts with the Embassy. We understand that the Embassy consents to the firm's continued and future representation of such other clients without the need for any further consents from the Embassy when there is no direct conflict. For example, there would not be a direct conflict where there is not direct relationship between such representation of such other clients and the matters the firm is handling for the Embassy, or where matters the firm is handling for either the Embassy or such other clients involved legislative or policy issues or administrative proceedings unrelated to the representation of the other client. Of course, any consent hereby granted by the Embassy would not extend to a litigation matter where the Embassy is a party and where a client represented by Hogan & Hartson is also a party in such litigation and adverse to the Embassy.

Under certain circumstances, lawyers who represent non-U.S. clients with respect to certain matters, including political activities, public relations, and advocacy before any agency or official of the U.S. government, must publicly disclose such activities under the Foreign Agents Registration Act. If our activities on your behalf trigger the Act's registration and reporting requirements, we will have to file reports, which will be made available to the public, disclosing our representation of you, the general nature of our activities on your behalf, and the firm's income from such activities. Beyond standard filing requirements, we will bill you for any time spent complying with the Act's requirements in connection with any specific "extraordinary" matters handled for you, and the Embassy agrees to indemnify and hold Hogan & Hartson harmless with respect to any matter undertaken on behalf of the Embassy and pursuant to this Agreement.

From time to time we may be required to respond to other requests for information or documents about you or our work for you. Such requests may come from you or your auditors. They may also come from third parties through a subpoena or other legal process to which we are required to respond. We will bill you for any time spent or costs incurred responding to such requests or demands in connection with any matters we handle for you. In the event the firm considers it necessary to engage counsel in connection with any such third party inquiries, those expenses will be reimbursable costs under this engagement. The firm will consult with you before engaging counsel.

Hogan & Hartson will maintain strict confidentiality with respect to the content of this agreement and all information it receives from the Embassy during as well as after the termination of this agreement. Unless prohibited by law from doing so, Hogan & Hartson will return, discard or delete any files, including electronic files, or a relevant part thereof which contains information provided by the Embassy, when requested, in a manner which maintains the confidentiality of such information (e.g., shred documents).

This will confirm our understanding that the Embassy is our client for specific matters on which it engages us, and Hogan & Hartson shall not be deemed to represent any related entities or agency of the Embassy unless the Embassy advises us that such entities or agencies are directly involved in or affected by our representation of the Embassy.

It is further understood that the terms of this letter shall apply from July 1, 2007 to December 31, 2007. Notwithstanding anything in this letter to the contrary, either the Embassy or Hogan & Hartson may terminate this engagement with 30 days' notice.

If this correctly reflects our understanding, please sign, date, and return to me the enclosed copy of this letter. If you have any questions regarding any aspects of our representation, please call me.

We are honored to be working with you.

With warmest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely,
