- Assisted with the success of Norwegian Cruise Lines' commitment to call on Grand Bahama and increase calls to Nassau
- Assisted with the coordination and participated in meetings for Minister Vanderpool-Wallace and DG with major cruise lines during the Florida Caribbean Cruise Line Conference in Trinidad.
- Consistently networking along with Director Cruise with all major cruise line executive to increase calls The Bahamas and foster better relationships with them
- Set guidelines for The Bahamas cruise video and worked on the production to create the 10 minute promotional video
- The Cruise Development Department was mandated by the Minister to create a crew discount program and create a card to be given to all crew members from cruise lines. To date 50 plus discounts have been secured from local businesses.
- Arranges all media and PR for cruise related events and Port Week
- Market the Bahamas Inter- Island Itineraries to small luxury cruise lines in an effort to attract more cruise passengers to the Out Islands.
- To stay informed about all cruise industry news and trends
- Created Nassau and Grand Bahama Island tour presentations which were presented to shore excursion managers at major cruise lines

Cruise Development Report: Mia Lange

Norwegian Cruise Lines- July through October 2008

As the decline in the Grand Bahama cruise passengers continued to be reflected, the department coordinated meetings to discuss possible interim business to the GBI destination. The first meeting was conducted by Carla Stuart and Mia Lange of the Cruise Development Department and was held at the NCL corporate office, with Andy Stuart- Vice President of Sales for Norwegian Cruise Lines. At the meeting, the executive agreed to have his team come to The Bahamas. The following month, in conjunction with the GBI team, an itinerary was created for a site inspection. The NCL crew included Andrew Stuart- Executive Vice President Marketing, Sales and Passenger Services, Captain Svein Sleipnes- Vice President of Operations CSO, Colin Murphy - Vice President of Land Operations (Tours, etc.).

Inter-island Itinerary brochure and Itinerary

In order to better facilitate the idea of cruise lines sailing within The Islands of The Bahamas, with an opportunity to provide additional revenue to the islands without overwhelming the islands, the department undertook to pursue an inter-island itinerary for small luxury cruise lines.

MSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT

2010 FEB 18 AM 10:16

Worked along with the Harbour Pilots to chart an itinerary with possible stops for cruise lines on a 5-7 day cruises. The proposal provided for departures from Ft. Lauderdale, Miami or Nassau, with the option to sail to points of interest in Abaco, Exuma, Eleuthera and Grand Bahama.

Port Week October 2008

Port Week is major for the Port area. It serves to foster unity for all persons in the Port area, but also assists in promoting the improvement of the experience in and around the Port area. The Cruise Development Director serves as Co-chair of Port Week, with the Department having specific responsibility for the following areas:

1. Coordination of each and Port Week meeting and agenda
2. Coordination of the Opening Ceremony- includes the coordination of speakers of FCCA and Ministry of Tourism, performers, sound, set up, etc.
3. Coordination of the Careers Fair- participation of cruise industry in booths, secure participation of schools, coordination of transportation for schools.
4. Coordination of the First Port Week Awards Ceremony – the program was designed to award workers which excelled in their respective areas in the Port – Immigration Officers, Customs Officers, Port Security, Road Traffic Officers, Hair Braiders, Ministry of Tourism, Scooter Rentals, Horse and Surrey, etc.
5. Coordinate the Port Fiesta- a fun day of entertainment for Port Workers
6. Coordinate Public Relations Budget and Plan for entire Port Week- ensure the execution of the Port week with maximum PR coverage.

Monthly Filming Of Disney Projects

Work with the Film and Commission to secure approvals of all films at Castaway Cays for Disney Film. This filming is done at least two to three times a month on average.

Monthly Band Performances

Each month, the department coordinates with the cruise lines, the performances of various bands in the braiders square. Where necessary, the department secures the necessary approvals required from Bahamas Customs and the Port Authority. The department also provides the necessary assistance or facilitation of sound equipment required.

Disney Podcast

As a means of increasing expenditure in Nassau, the Cruise Development Department sought to work along with Disney to update its video footage of things to do in Nassau. The Department coordinated an itinerary, scheduling and transportation for the Disney Crew of interesting spots in Nassau.

Crew Discount Program

The estimated 279,784 crew who visited The Bahamas spent an estimated total of $5.5 million ($US). The FCCA has requested the Ministry of Tourism's assistance in securing discount offers for crew members while in the Port of Nassau. It is an excellent opportunity to attract more business to local companies and to demonstrate appreciation for crew member's contribution to the Bahamian economy. To date 50 discounts have been secured from merchants in Nassau. The BMOT's Graphics Department is currently designing the item which will be produced on a durable, post card sized, plastic card stock material.

Island of The Bahamas Cruise Video

All major cruise lines are showing generic videos of Nassau in the cabins on the ships. These videos focus mainly on the shore excursions that the lines partner with. The cruise video will be an advertising tool to showcase what the destination has to offer and to visually entice cruise passengers to return as stopover visitors. The video will be played on all major cruise lines that call on The Bahamas; will incorporate.

It is the department's goal to build a large Bahamas cruise passenger database which will enable the Government to market directly to cruise passengers- enticing them to return to The Bahamas as stopover visitors. An E-marketing campaign will be implemented and E-blasts will be sent out, promoting the discounted offers to database contacts. E-blasts will be designed by MOT's E-commerce staff. Cruise passenger immigration cards are currently being scanned. Thus far, the database comprises of email addresses of 200,000 cruise passengers. The next phase will involve the transfer of data by Indusa into a database.

Online Bahamas Cruise Calendar

For quite some time, the Cruise lines have requested an online calendar which enables the automation of requests for berths. The Cruise Development Department continues to assist in this area, and at present, the calendar is live and can be accessed by logging onto www.bahamascruisealendar.com. A local company, Digital Isle has created the calendar which allows for the online submission of berthing requests. The Cruise Development staff has been instrumental in the input and has entered all confirmed berths from 2006-2010 into the calendar. Programmers are in the process of completing final work on the calendar, as we seek to also utilize the calendar to obtain important industry reports and future predictions – calls per week, by month or quarterly, as well as the number of hours spent in port.

Inter-island Itinerary Brochure and Itinerary

In order to better facilitate the idea of cruise lines sailing within The Islands of The Bahamas, the Department continues to follow-up with various cruise lines as we seek to ensure and evaluate the requirements with respect to this product. Follow-up conversations and meetings continue to be held with small luxury cruise lines- Crystal Cruise, SeaDream Yacht Club, Seabourn, American Canadian Cruise Lines, Hapag Llyod, Grand Mariner and Vistamar, Le Levant and most recently Greg Norman (former owner of the American Canadian Cruises).

Seatrade Cruise Industry Trade Show and Conference 2008

Each year the conference is attended by all major cruise line executives and provides a good opportunity for networking and building industry knowledge on the latest trends in cruise travel. This year the focus was on meeting key industry executives and meetings were held with MSC Cruises, Chukka Caribbean, SeaDream Yacht Club, Blue Hole Pictures and Carnival Corp.

Port Week October 2008

Port Week is a major event for users and workers at the Port. It serves to foster unity for all persons in the Port area, but also assists in promoting the improvement of the experience in and around the Port area. Responsible for:

1. Coordination of each Port Week meeting and agenda
2. Coordination of the Opening Ceremony- includes the coordination of speakers from FCCA and Ministry of Tourism, performers, sound, set up, etc.
3. Coordination of the Careers Fair- secure participation of various government agencies and other marine and port entities, participation of students, coordination of transportation for schools.
4. Coordination of the First Port Week Awards Ceremony – the program was designed to award workers which excelled in their respective areas in the Port. Immigration Officers, Customs Officers, Port Security, Road Traffic Officers, Hair Braiders, Ministry of Tourism, Scooter Rentals, Horse and Surrey, etc. The Department will also seek to secure prizes for the winners.
5. Coordinate Public Relations Budget and Plan for entire Port Week- ensure the execution of the Port week with maximum PR coverage.
