M. SILVER ASSOCIATES, Inc.
Public Relations/Marketing Communications

Feb. 13, 1990: per VMS, Regent prefers to maintain MSA relationship on a month-to-month basis with no signed contract.

February 10, 1989

Mr. Michael A. G. Matthews
Vice President
Sales and Marketing Worldwide
REGENT INTERNATIONAL HOTELS
New World Centre, 15th Floor
Salisbury Road
Kowloon, Hong Kong

Dear Mike:

The expression of confidence that you have placed in our agency by renewing our contract is very gratifying and most sincerely appreciated.

This letter will serve as a confirmation of our agreement whereby Regent International Hotels has retained M. Silver Associates, Inc., as public relations and publicity counsel for a one-year period commencing February 1, 1989.

It is understood that in consideration for professional services to be rendered by this office, the monthly remuneration to be paid by Regent International Hotels will be as follows: Regent Beverly Wilshire, $2,000; Regent of Hong Kong, $1,500; Mayfair Regent, $500; and all other overseas Regent properties $8,000.

As is customary with all our clients, we will be reimbursed by Regent International Hotels for all disbursements and expenditures made by M. Silver Associates in behalf of Regent International Hotels in the course of servicing the account. These expenses will include toll telephone calls, photocopying, travel, photography, clipping service, mailing, mat service, telex and facsimile service, messenger service, and other out-of-pocket expenses. Any special projects, such as audio visual presentations, creation and production of travel agent newsletters etc, will be billed as separate projects.

In consideration for the above fee, our office will endeavor to intelligently, constructively and aggressively place publicity for Regent International Hotels in all media and work closely with you in performing those public relations duties determined advisable to the overall success of your marketing program.
