

CONTRACT

#3440

The Embassy of Japan, 2520 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20008 (the "Embassy") and Saunders & Company, 1015 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314 ("SCO") have agreed as follows:

1. SCO agrees to report to the Embassy on the following: a study on the "100 Leading Japan Hands" in the Bush Administration, Congress, think tanks, mass media, business organizations and trade associations, including contact information and brief background notes, to be delivered to the Embassy.
2. In exchange for these services, the Embassy agrees to pay SCO Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00). Payment shall be made by the Embassy on March 31, 2001 in U.S. dollars.
3. This contract will take effect upon signature and shall expire on March 31, 2001.
4. The Embassy and SCO agree that any information from SCO may not be republished in any form for external dissemination or be marketed to other parties and may be used only for internal purposes in the regular course of the Embassy's business.

In witness of the above agreement, Minister Sumio Kusaka, representing the Embassy of Japan, and G. Michael Kenny, representing Saunders & Company.
