9. Explain fully all items answered "Yes" in Item 8(b). (If additional space is needed, a separate page may be used.)

INTELSAT is an international organization consisting of 108 member countries which are "Parties" to the Intergovernmental "Agreement Relating to the International Telecommunications Satellite organizations," which established the global satellite system. INTELSAT is also a non-profit cooperative jointly owned by the 108 entities which are "Signatories" to the Operating Agreement. Each signatory's investment in the INTELSAT system is proportional to its use. A signatory may be a party or a telecommunications entity designated by a party which has signed the Operating Agreement.

INTELSAT has the following organs: (1) the Assembly of Parties; (2) the Meeting of Signatories; (3) the Board of Governors; and (4) an executive organ. Policy and management decisions are divided among those four (4) organs.

10. If the foreign principal is an organization and is not owned or controlled by a foreign government, foreign political party or other foreign principal, state who owns and controls it.
