Dear Mr. Lassman,

The Embassy of Canada is of the view that there be available to it expert advice on aspects of current or potential legislative or regulatory developments in the United States which may affect Canadian interests. To achieve this end, the Embassy hereby offers to the firm of Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, a contract for services subject to the following terms and conditions.

The services to be performed under this contract shall be to advise the Canadian Embassy, in accordance with instructions given from time to time by the Embassy, on United States legislative, regulatory, administrative and political developments which may affect Canadian interests and in particular:

1. Regularly monitor and report on assigned issues and concerns with a view to advising the Embassy of potential developments or movements in respect of these.
2. Prepare analyses and assist in the development of appropriate responses to legislative or regulatory initiatives which are of interest to the Embassy.
3. Identify and assess the attitudes and positions of key individuals involved in the development and formulation of such initiatives identified as issues of concern by the Embassy.

4. Provide guidance on developing and implementing a Congressional relations program dealing with issues arising there and assist in executing that program through regular contact with members and staff.
5. Determine groups and/or individuals who could be encouraged to support Canadian positions or views on particular issues.

Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld shall undertake that neither its partners nor employees will, at any time during and after the rendering of the services contracted for, cite, quote, refer to or otherwise communicate any confidential information obtained from Canadian Government files or by any other means without the prior written agreement of the Government of Canada. As well, all materials, papers and studies forming part of, or produced in the performance of, this contract and all copyrights therein will be the property of the Government of Canada, and shall not be communicated or published without the prior written permission of the Government of Canada. It is understood that the Government of Canada will not be liable for claims in respect of death, disease, illness, injury or disability or loss or damage to property which may be suffered by Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld or its employees or anyone else as a result of the performance by Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld or its employees in carrying out this contract.

For the performance of these services to the satisfaction of the Canadian Ambassador to the United States of America, the Canadian Government will pay you at the fixed monthly rate of U.S. $10,000.00 during the life of the contract (January 1, 1984 to March 31, 1984).

Payment under this contract shall be made by the Embassy subject to the submission of payment requests submitted by Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld on a monthly basis.

The total amount that may be paid under the terms of this contract in respect of fees and other expenses is limited to U.S. $30,000.00.

The terms of this contract may be revised by mutual agreement.

This contract shall not be assigned. No member of the House of Commons of Canada shall be admitted to any share of part of this contract or to any benefits arising therefrom.

This letter, upon signature by and on behalf of Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld will constitute a contract for services between Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld and the Embassy of Canada in accordance with the Government of Canada Contract Regulations, during the period January 1, 1984 to March 31, 1984. It shall be understood that it does not constitute an appointment or an employment of any person in the capacity of an officer, clerk or employee of the Canadian Government or the Embassy. Each party may terminate this contract by giving a thirty day written notice.

If these terms are acceptable to Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld we should be grateful if you would arrange to have this letter signed on behalf of the firm and return this letter, in duplicate to the Embassy of Canada. A copy is enclosed for your records.

Yours sincerely,

Allan Gottlieb
