Appendix A: Services

The Firm will provide services under this Agreement during 2010 as described below.

I. Monitoring of the debate concerning possible reforms to the U.S. Generalized System of Preferences (“GSP”), with particular focus on any proposals or developments that might affect the eligibility of Thailand or any of its export industries for future GSP eligibility. The Firm’s monitoring activities will encompass:

- regular discussions with Congressional staff on committees of the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate with oversight over international trade issues, i.e., the House Committee on Ways and Means and its Subcommittee on International Trade, and the Senate Finance Committee;
- regular discussions with Executive Branch officials with oversight over international trade issues, in particular of the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative;
- discussions, as warranted, with representatives of organizations seeking to influence the GSP reform debate, in particular the Coalition for GSP; and
- comprehensive and regular review of international trade media.

II. For the period February through July 2010, the Firm and the Client will meet on a monthly basis. The purpose of such monthly meetings is for the Firm to provide updates on the monitoring activities described in Section I above, and for the Firm and the Client to discuss potential implications for Thailand’s GSP eligibility and to collectively develop Thai positions on GSP reform. Promptly after each monthly meeting, the Firm will provide to the Client a written summary of the meeting. Based on such monthly meetings, the Firm and the Client will work together to develop a final position paper for the Client setting forth, in brief form, the Royal Thai Government’s specific proposals for GSP reform. The position paper will be completed no later than July 2010.

III. For the period August through December 2010, the Firm will continue the monitoring activities described in Section I above, and will provide monthly written updates to the Client.

IV. The Firm will provide an updated version of the document submitted to the GPS Subcommittee on March 23, 2009, and entitled “Comments on 2008 GSP Redesignation and De Minimis Waiver Review by the Royal Thai Government.” The updated version will also address requests to extend waivers of the competitive need limit for any products that exceed the “super CNL” specified in 19 U.S.C. § 2463(d)(4)(B)(II). The Firm will prepare the updated version of this document based on information to be provided by the Client, and in time for submission to the GSP Subcommittee by the deadline to be specified by the GSP Subcommittee for its submission.

V. The District of Columbia Rules of Professional Conduct set forth detailed rules regarding conflicts of interests that apply to this engagement and our relationship with clients. The Firm represents many other companies, organizations, and individuals. While the Firm is not aware of any conflict of interest with respect to the Client, as defined by the applicable bar rules, if the Firm identifies a conflict of interest, it will promptly notify the Client and seek to reach an accommodation that would allow the Firm to continue to provide the services described in this Agreement.
