INTELSAT

III—ACTIVITIES

11. During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in Items 8, 9, and 10 of this statement? Yes No

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services:

INTELSAT

Provided general counsel and advice to the client regarding international telecommunications policy. Also participated in consultations with Executive Branch officials and congressional staff to explain how INTELSAT works and discuss the legal impediments which exist under INTELSAT agreements to prevent it from competing with specialized private systems.

CANADA

Services included the performance of research on various legislative and administrative policy issues for the Embassy of Canada. Research performed by the firm included meetings with congressional staff and Executive Branch officials; these meetings were held purely to gather information and no effort was made to present the views of the Government of Canada. The firm has advised personnel of the Canadian Embassy regarding a wide variety of domestic and international issues of concern to Canada, and has prepared various written materials for the Canadian Embassy staff.

¹The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity² as defined below?
 Yes No

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

INTELSAT

Consultation with decisionmakers within the Executive Branch and Congress to explain how INTELSAT works and to discuss the legal impediments which exist under INTELSAT agreements to prevent it from competing with specialized private systems. Activities included meetings and telephone conversations throughout the past six months with congressional and Executive Branch staff regarding the status of White House review of NTIA and SIG recommendations for international satellite telecommunications policy.

Questions 22 and 24:

Some of the letters forwarded to government officials may constitute "political propaganda" under the Act and, as such, were labeled pursuant to the requirements of section 4(e). These original typewritten letters, however, did not constitute "prints" under section 4(a)(i) nor were they intended to be disseminated or circulated among two or more persons as described in section 4(a)(ii). Thus, pursuant to section 4(a), neither copies of the letters nor dissemination reports would need to be filed with the Justice Department.
