Act, and other applicable laws and regulations of the United States and the District of Columbia.

10. Conflicts: Turkey acknowledges DLA Piper's large size and breadth of practice, which give rise to the potential that it may represent clients in unrelated matters whose interests are contrary to Turkey's. Nonetheless, even the appearance of a conflict could render unproductive the relationship contemplated by this Agreement. Therefore, DLA Piper shall endeavor not only to avoid actual conflicts, but the appearance of conflicts as well. To that end, DLA Piper shall comply with all applicable provisions of the District of Columbia Bar Code of Professional Conduct. It shall also immediately assess whether it represents any clients whose interests are contrary to Turkey. If so, then it shall inform Turkey and then Turkey and DLA Piper shall work together to determine whether and how to resolve any apparent or actual conflict. Only on a case-by-case basis will Turkey acknowledge that a concurrent representation in an unrelated matter is appropriate. In order to assist in the process of identifying potential conflicts, DLA Piper shall consult with the Turkish Embassy's legal counsel in identifying those issues, which, if addressed in other client matters, may present a conflict.

11. Choice of Law: This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Republic of Turkey. The Turkish Republic courts located in Ankara, Turkey shall be the venue for resolving any dispute related to the interpretation and application of this Agreement that cannot otherwise be settled amicably by the parties.

12. Power to Bind: Absent the express written consent of Turkey, neither DLA Piper nor its consultants and subcontractors have authority to bind Turkey in any manner whatsoever.
