Re: Engagement and Conflict Waiver Letter for Legal Services

Dear Dr. Alwazir:

We are pleased that the Palestine Monetary Authority (the "PMA" or the "Company") is engaging DLA Piper LLP (US) ("DLA Piper," "we," or the "Firm") to assist it in compliance with anti-money laundering and economic sanctions laws and regulations and to strengthen the relationship between the PMA and the U.S. Government and U.S. correspondent banks (the "Matter").

General Terms

The terms and conditions set forth in the Terms of Service enclosed are incorporated herein with the exception of any terms and conditions herein that differ from those in the Terms of Service. Where the terms and conditions differ, this letter shall control.

I will be responsible for and actively involved in the Matter. Lawrence Levinson and Thomas Prevas will work with me on this representation. George Salem, who is submitting his own engagement letter, will also assist in this matter. Additional lawyers, including those in other practice areas will be added to the Matter on an as-needed basis. Any significant additions to staffing will be discussed with you in advance.

Fees and Expenses

Palestine Monetary Authority will pay a flat fee of $50,000.00 each month for a period of 12 months for services rendered in connection with this Matter. During the first month, we will work with you to develop an action plan. We will submit statements for services rendered for payment on a monthly basis. The statements will reflect both the time involved in the Matter and our internal time charges.

We will submit statements for services rendered for payment on a monthly basis. Payment is due thirty (30) days following the invoice date. We reserve the right to assess and collect late payment charges at the rate of 10% per year on past due accounts.

Our billing statements will include charges and disbursements incurred by us in the course of providing services. These items will be billed in accordance with our standard practice, as described in the attached summary, which may be periodically updated. Palestine Monetary Authority is solely responsible to pay certain costs directly to outside service providers, such as consultant or expert witness fees and expenses, and outside suppliers or contractors' charges.

In addition, our billing statements will include charges and disbursements incurred by us in the course of providing services. These items will be billed in accordance with our standard practice, as described in the attached summary, which may be periodically updated.

If the terms of this letter are satisfactory, please sign the consent form below and return it to me. In the event that you do not sign the letter and return it within ten (10) days from the date of this letter, please note that your instructing us or continuing to instruct us on a particular matter will constitute your full acceptance of the terms set out in this letter.

Very truly yours,

DLA Piper LLP (US)

DLA Piper LLP (US)

Client-Reimbursable Expenses and Other Charges

Effective January 1, 2014

DLA Piper LLP (US) bills clients for reasonable charges and disbursements incurred in connection with a matter. Clients are billed for disbursements based on the actual cost billed by the vendor or, as noted below, at rates below or comparable to outside vendor charges.

I. Research Services. Charges for computerized research services are billed at levels below that which would be charged for individual usage on a particular engagement. Services for which the Firm negotiates discount rates are billed at the discounted rate.

II. Duplication and Electronic Document Management. Photocopying services (including copying, collating, tabbing and binding) performed in-house are charged at $0.15 per page. Color photocopies or prints are charged at $1.25 per page. Photocopying projects performed by outside vendors are billed at the actual invoice amount.

Electronic Data Management services (e.g., scanning, CD/DVD creation, file conversion) performed by outside vendors are billed at the actual invoice amount.

III. Travel Expenses. Out-of-town travel expenses are billed at actual cost and include air or rail travel, lodging, car rental, taxi or car service, tips and other reasonable miscellaneous costs associated with travel. Corporate and/or negotiated discounted rates are passed on to the client. Certain retrospective rebates may not be passed along. We charge coach fares for domestic flights and business class for international flights unless the client has approved first-class or an upgrade.

IV. Postage and Courier Services. Outside messenger and express courier services are charged at the actual vendor invoice amount. The Firm negotiates, uses, and passes along volume discount rates whenever practicable. Where the Firm uses in-house messengers, there is a standard transaction charge.

V. Direct Payment by Clients of Other Disbursements. Other major disbursements incurred in connection with a matter will be paid directly by the client. Examples of such major disbursements that clients will pay directly include:

Professional Fees (including disbursements for local counsel, accountants, witnesses and other professionals)

Filing/Court Fees (including disbursements for agency fees for filing documents, standard witness fees, juror fees)

Client-Reimbursable Expenses and Other Charges

Transcription Fees (including disbursements for outside transcribing agencies and deposition/courtroom stenographer transcripts)

Other Disbursements (including any other required out-of-pocket expenses incurred for the successful completion of the matter)

TERMS OF SERVICE

1. INTRODUCTION

These Terms of Service set forth the terms and conditions under which DLA Piper LLP (US) ("the Firm") will act as your counsel for all existing and future matters (collectively, the "Engagement").

The Firm has issued or will issue an engagement letter, setting forth the scope of the representation, the fee agreement, and other matter-specific terms ("Engagement Letter"). These Terms of Service should be read and understood in conjunction with the Engagement Letter. The Terms of Service and Engagement Letter are collectively referred to as "the Engagement Terms." Where there is any inconsistency between these Terms of Service and the Engagement Letter, the latter will control.

The Terms of Service supersede all prior agreements between you and the Firm with respect to the Engagement. The Terms of Service can only be altered or amended by a writing signed by both you and the Firm.

The words "you" and "your" refer to the client(s) specified in the relevant engagement letter. The words "we," "us" and "our" refer to the Firm.

2. CLIENT(S) REPRESENTED

You agree and acknowledge that the Firm's representation of you does not create an attorney-client relationship with any other entity or person, including without limitation, your corporate parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, other entities owned, in whole or in part by you, entities that hold direct or indirect interests in you, or any of your directors, officers, stockholders, employees, or agents, unless such entities or persons are specifically named in the Engagement Letter.

In representing corporations, we may provide information or advice to directors, officers, or employees in their corporate capacities. The provision of such information or advice does not create an attorney-client relationship between us and the individual(s) other than in their corporate capacities.

In representing partnerships, we may provide information or advice to partners, officers or employees in their capacities as your representatives. The provision of such information or advice does not create an attorney-client relationship between us and the individual(s) other than in their representative capacities.

In representing limited liability companies, we may provide information or advice to members, officers or employees in their capacities as your representatives. The provision of such information or advice does not create an attorney-client relationship between us and the individual(s) other than in their representative capacities.

In the event that you are acquired or are otherwise subject to a change in control (including by a person or group becoming a controlling affiliate of yours) after the inception of the Engagement, it is understood that the Firm does not represent the acquiring entity or such controlling affiliate or establish an attorney-client relationship with such entities or affiliates.

The Firm's representation of an association or trade group does not create an attorney-client relationship with any of the association or trade group's constituents, members, affiliates or participants individually.

3. COUNSEL GUIDELINES

You agree and acknowledge that the Engagement Terms shall control over terms contained in your outside counsel guidelines or similar instructions supplied by you at any time.

4. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Firm and its affiliated entities represent clients in a broad range of industries and in a wide variety of legal matters, nationally and internationally. Absent an effective conflict of interest waiver, conflicts of interest could arise that could deprive you or other clients of the right to select the Firm as their counsel, and preclude us from representing you or other clients in ongoing or future matters. In undertaking the Engagement, the Firm wants to be fair to you and to our other clients. Accordingly, you acknowledge and agree that the Firm and its affiliated entities may, now or in the future, represent other persons or entities on matters adverse to you or any of your current or future affiliates, including, without limitation, in commercial transactions, auctions, mergers and acquisitions, intellectual property matters, restructuring or bankruptcy matters, litigation, arbitration or other dispute resolution procedure, other than those for which the Firm had been or is then engaged by you. Such matters shall be referred to as

"Allowed Adverse Representation." You understand that the foregoing examples are illustrative, not exhaustive.

You agree that you will not, for yourself or any other entity or person, assert the Firm's representation of you or any of its current or future affiliates as a basis for disqualifying the Firm from representing another party in an Allowed Adverse Representation. You further agree that an Allowed Adverse Representation does not breach any duty that the Firm owes to you or any of your affiliates. You may consult with independent counsel regarding this section before agreeing to it.

You agree that this section does not expand the scope of the Engagement to encompass your affiliates unless expressly agreed by the Firm.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Firm has a professional obligation not to disclose your confidential information or to use it for another party's benefit without your consent. These obligations are subject to certain exceptions, including laws and regulations relating to money laundering and terrorist financing. Under certain circumstances, the Firm may be obligated to disclose information to governmental authorities, and we may be prohibited from informing you that disclosure has been made or the reasons for such disclosure. We may have to cease work for you for a period of time and not be able to inform you of the reason. Provided that the Firm acts consistent with its duty of confidentiality, subject to the exceptions noted in this section and those set forth in the applicable Rules of Professional Conduct, you agree that you shall not assert that the Firm's possession of such confidential information is a basis for disqualifying the Firm from representing another of its clients in any matter in which you have an interest, or that it constitutes a breach of any duty owed by the Firm, even though the information may relate to a matter in which the Firm is representing another client or may be known to someone at the Firm working on the matter.

If the Firm receives a subpoena or request for information that is within our custody or control, or the custody or control of our agents or representatives, we will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, advise you before responding so that you have the opportunity to intervene or assert any objections. Should you object to the production of such information, the Firm may provide such information only to the extent authorized by you or required by a court or other governmental body of competent jurisdiction. You agree to pay the Firm for services rendered and charges and disbursements incurred in responding to any such request for information at the Firm's customary billing rates and pursuant to the Firm's charges and disbursements policies.

You consent and agree that the Firm may disclose the fact of the Engagement and related general information to the extent that such disclosure does not convey any confidential and or non-public information and is not adverse to your interests.

6. ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES

Any dispute or claim between you and the Firm arising out of or relating to the Engagement Terms or their breach, including, without limitation, claims for breach of contract, professional negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, fraud and disputes regarding attorney fees and/or costs charged under this Agreement (except to the extent provided below) shall be submitted to binding arbitration before the American Arbitration Association, and subject to the Commercial Arbitration Rules. This provision shall not apply to any ethics or disciplinary proceedings against the Firm. The parties shall bear their own legal fees and costs for all claims.

You acknowledge that by agreeing to this Arbitration provision, you are giving up the right to litigate claims against the Firm, and important rights that would be available in litigation, including the right to trial by judge or jury, to extensive discovery and to appeal an adverse decision. You acknowledge that you have read and understand this arbitration provision, and that you voluntarily agree to binding arbitration.

NOTE: You are entitled to consult an independent lawyer to review this arbitration provision before agreeing to it. By accepting these Engagement Terms, you acknowledge that you have consulted with independent counsel, or if not, that you had the opportunity to do so.

7. CLIENT IDENTIFICATION

Many jurisdictions have adopted or are in the process of changing or creating anti-money laundering, counter-terrorist financing, embargo, trade sanctions or similar policies or laws. As part of the Firm's responsibility for compliance with such laws, rules, regulations or policies, the Firm is obliged to take detailed steps to verify the identity of our clients and sources of payment. Accordingly, prior to commencement of work, the Firm will have already requested, or will be requesting shortly, that you provide us with required identification documents. A delay or failure to provide information required for verification purposes may prevent us from commencing or require us to suspend work on the matter. It is also necessary for us to reserve the right to request additional information believed necessary, advisable or appropriate to verify identity and/or to ensure the Firm's compliance with applicable laws, rules, regulations, best practices and anti-money laundering matters from time to time.

8. DATA TRANSFER CONSENT

Due to legal obligations applicable to the Firm or our affiliated offices, and to efficiently maintain information provided to us, the Firm may transfer some or all of any personal or other data and information ("Data") that you provide to the Firm to one or more DLA Piper offices in other countries that may not be subject to data protection laws similar to those in the jurisdiction in which the Data is first received. By signing this letter, you give us specific consent to obtain and transfer such

Data, and confirm that you have obtained and grant us all required consents to allow the Firm to do so.

9. TERMINATION

Either of us may terminate the Firm's representation of you in a particular ongoing matter, or in the Engagement, at any time. Unless otherwise terminated by you or the Firm, our representation of you with respect to a particular matter will terminate upon conclusion of the Firm's active involvement in the matter (even if the Firm continues active involvement in other matters on your behalf). Upon termination, we will have no further duty to inform you of future developments or changes in law as may be relevant to such matter. Further, unless you and the Firm mutually agree in writing to the contrary, we will have no obligation to monitor renewal, expiration, or notice dates or similar deadlines which may arise from the matters for which we had been retained.

If, at any time, our engagement is limited to a specific matter, and at the time such matter is completed, we are not representing you in any other matters, our attorney-client relationship will be deemed terminated whether or not we send you a letter to confirm such termination. Thereafter, if you and the Firm mutually agree to engage on a matter or matters, these Terms of Service (and any applicable Engagement Letter) would then become effective.

If permission for withdrawal is required by a court, we shall apply promptly

12. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of the Engagement Terms is held invalid or unenforceable by any court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions of the Engagement Terms shall remain in full force and effect. Any provision of the Engagement Terms held invalid or unenforceable only in part or degree will remain in full force and effect to the extent not held invalid or unenforceable. Our waiver of any of the Engagement Terms shall not be deemed a further or continuing waiver of such term or any other term, unless specifically stated.
