

INSTRUCTIONS: A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements; or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances, by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. This form shall be filed in duplicate for each foreign principal named in the registration statement and must be signed by or on behalf of the registrant.

Name of Registrant	Name of Foreign Principal
Winston & Strawn	Government of Aruba

Check Appropriate Boxes:

- The agreement between the registrant and the above-named foreign principal is a formal written contract. If this box is checked, attach two copies of the contract to this exhibit.
- There is no formal written contract between the registrant and foreign principal. The agreement with the above-named foreign principal has resulted from an exchange of correspondence. If this box is checked, attach two copies of all pertinent correspondence, including a copy of any initial proposal which has been adopted by reference in such correspondence.
- The agreement or understanding between the registrant and foreign principal is the result of neither a formal written contract nor an exchange of correspondence between the parties. If this box is checked, give a complete description below of the terms and conditions of the oral agreement or understanding, its duration, the fees and the expenses, if any, to be received.

This oral agreement is for an indefinite duration and the foreign principal will be billed registrant's normal hourly rates plus expenses (photocopying, telephone, telecopy, lodging, meals, and similar expenses). Also, please see answer to Item 4 for a description of services involving "private and nonpolitical" activities performed pursuant to previous agreements.

- Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

Please see attached sheet.

¹Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

4. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

Registrant has an oral agreement with the foreign principal to advise it regarding its relations with the U.S. Congress and the Treasury Department, particularly the U.S. Customs Service, on issues which may affect the foreign principal. This may include having meetings and telephone conferences with members and staff of Congress as well as officials of the U.S. Treasury (particularly the Customs Service) and State Departments and other Executive Branch officials for the purpose of gathering information, making status inquiries and advocating a position in favor of U.S. policy, practice or procedure which promotes (1) greater cooperation with the foreign principal in combatting drug trafficking in the Caribbean region and (2) greater cooperation with the foreign principal in U.S. customs-related issues which affect the foreign principal including the establishment of a U.S. Customs pre-clearance facility in Aruba.

Prior to this filing, registrant has rendered legal services to the foreign principal on commercial matters which do not involve "political activities" as defined under the Foreign Agents Registration Act and which are exempt from registration as "private and nonpolitical activities in furtherance of the bona fide trade or commerce" of the foreign principal. Registrant continues to render legal services of this nature. Some of these services have been rendered pursuant to an oral agreement which modified a previous exchange of correspondence, while other services have been and are being performed pursuant to oral agreements on a project-by-project basis. All of these legal services may be characterized in one of the following categories: (1) negotiating a loan agreement, construction contract, management agreement and related documents for the financing, construction and operation of a hotel and casino and follow-up advisory services; (2) advising on the development of the foreign principal's telecommunications infrastructure; (3) advising on the development of the foreign principal as an international business/financial center including possible modifications of its domestic, fiscal and corporate laws; and (4) advising on the possible entry by the foreign principal into the international capital markets.
