VIA COURIER

The Honorable J.H.A. Eman
Prime Minister
Government of Aruba
L.G. Smith Blvd. 76
Oranjestad, Aruba

Dear Prime Minister Eman:

Thank you for engaging Winston & Strawn to serve as counsel to the Government of Aruba (the "Government") commencing on January 1, 1995. The purpose of this letter is to confirm the terms and conditions under which the firm will undertake this representation.

Our representation will consist of providing legal advice to the Government and representing it in transactional projects as designated by the Government which will further the economic development of Aruba, including but not limited to projects involving real estate, telecommunications, and transportation matters ("designated transactional projects"). Our fees for such representation will be based on the normal hourly billing rates for each attorney, plus charges for costs and expenses incurred in performing our services (including but not limited to mail, messenger and delivery services, air fare, lodging, meals, telephone, telecopy, photocopy, taxi or car rental and computerized research).

The range of hourly rates for the attorneys we anticipate being involved in our representation of the Government is from $120 to $300. These billing rates are subject to adjustment from time to time (usually in January of each year).

Although I will be the responsible attorney for this engagement, various portions of the work may be performed by other firm lawyers. We also utilize paralegal personnel to perform appropriate tasks, and their time is billed at lower rates, ranging from $70 to $90 per hour, also subject to periodic adjustment.

In addition, our representation of the Government will consist of providing advice, research, and assistance to the Government on matters other than transactional projects, including but not limited to matters involving relations between the United States and Aruba ("non-transactional matters"). Our fees for such non-transactional support services will be a monthly non-refundable retainer of $5,900 per month, plus charges for costs and expenses incurred in performing our services (as defined above).

Following the conclusion of each three month period of our representation, we will provide you, or the Government official whom you designate, with a written report summarizing the services we provided during the preceding three months. We will render bills monthly for our fees for designated transactional projects and non-transactional matters. Our statements generally will be prepared and transmitted to the Government during the month following the month in which services are rendered.

The Government has the right terminate our services by written notice to the firm not less than 60 days prior to the date upon which such termination becomes effective. Such termination shall not, however, relieve the Government of the obligation to pay for all services already rendered, including work in progress and
