Dear Mr. Lake:

I am the president of the Islami Jamhoori Ittehad of America (IJI), the American office of one of Pakistan's major political parties. As the Pakistani people have struggled to bring about a democratic government, the IJI has become a cornerstone in their fight for political freedom. My party maintains a strong commitment to a representative government and offers the Pakistani people a true set of alternatives at the polling place. We firmly believe that through such an adherence to democracy and a multiparty system, we can build a new Pakistan which is truly created by the will of its people.

In these early days of a new government, it is vital that Pakistan receive the support of more established democratic allies, especially the United States of America. Towards that end, American policy-makers and the public should hear a broader spectrum of the diverse voices which represent the Pakistani people, including the major political entities in the country. In the last popular elections, the IJI demonstrated its wide support among the Pakistani citizens.

At this time, it is critical that your country get accurate and balanced information about the political climate in Pakistan and about one of the country's leading democratic forces, the IJI. In pursuit of that goal, we would like to appoint your firm, Robinson, Lake, Lerer and Montgomery, to assist in this endeavor.

Sincerely,

Yusuf A. Haroon
President
