Queensland follows 'Eastern Standard Time' throughout the year. Unlike Australia's southern states, Queensland does not have daylight saving during summer. Be careful to check the time if travelling to or from another state within Australia.

South Australia certainly wows visitors with its wildlife, outback and wine. Kangaroo Island, the Galapagos of Australia, is a short flight from Adelaide, and is positively hopping with the eponymous marsupials, wallabies and fur seals. It's also home to the Southern Ocean Lodge, one of Australia's most highly rated luxury lodges. Back on the mainland, wine aficionados quaff the Clare Valley's distinguished Rieslings at wineries like Skilloogalee Shiraz enthusiasts visit the legendary Barossa Valley to enjoy pours at big-name wineries like Penfolds (where you can also try blending your own wine), or sample wines from boutique outfits such as Torbreck while staying at The Louise, a posh vineyard inn with the area's finest restaurant, Appellation. The state capital, Adelaide, has a bustling dining scene including trendy restaurants lining Gouger Street, and hosts festivals year-round including April's "Tasting Australia," a gathering of some of Australia's foremost chefs and tastemakers.
