If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates and places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits any or all of your foreign principals? Yes No

If yes, describe fully.

RGIT prepares various analyses and reports on government policy and legislation for the benefit of RGIT's principals and their member companies in Germany, as well as the U.S. affiliates of such member companies. In addition to these reports, RGIT electronically publishes and disseminates a weekly newsletter, "Washington News." In-depth reports on matters ranging from analyses of trade policy to memoranda on federal budgetary initiatives are also disseminated via e-mail. The majority of RGIT's publications are written in German, although some publications, including a fact sheet on German investment in the United States, appear in English. RGIT's website is frequently updated to reflect the newest informational material produced in-house.

⁵ The term "political activities" means any activity that the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.
