INTERNATIONAL SECTION
REGISTRATION

This agreement, dated this first day of March, 1991, by and between the Canadian Standards Association, an association, created and existing under the laws of the province of Ontario (therein called the "Association"), and Kathleen Winn and Associates, herein called the "Consultant").

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth herein, the Association and the Consultant agree to the following:

I. The Consultant's Duties and Responsibilities

The Association does hereby retain the services of the Consultant and the Consultant hereby agrees to provide these services to the Association, all according to the terms set out in the agreement. The principal duties of the Consultant will be to provide information and intelligence on legislative and regulatory initiatives and developments of primary interest to the Association. Attitudes of policymakers and the pressures and other interests likely to affect government decisions will also be included in this information. The Consultant will work with the Association to develop strategic plans in dealing with and reacting to relevant U.S. government policy concerns and opportunities. The Consultant will also provide a bridge for the Association to participate more actively in Washington initiatives and/or to exchange concerns and information with Congressional and regulatory policymakers. The execution of such duties shall be consistent with the policies and approval of the Association.

In providing the services described herein, the Consultant shall be available to the Company at times mutually agreeable to both parties during the period this Agreement is in effect.

The Consultant's fee for special projects will be negotiated depending on their complexity and duration.

The Consultant's relationship with Association shall be that of an independent contractor.

II. Terms of the Agreement

This agreement shall be effective immediately and continue until terminated by either party upon sixty (60) days written notice or upon the death or incapacitating disability of the Consultant. In the event of such termination, any compensation or expenses accrued by and unpaid at the time of the termination shall be paid to the Consultant.

This agreement will be reviewed in six-months.

III. Compensation

The Association agrees to pay the Consultant in connection with the performance of its activities under this Agreement a flat fee of $1,000 per month for each month this Agreement is in effect.

The Association shall pay the reasonable expenses of travel, except airfare and hotel accommodations, and entertainment undertaken by the Consultant upon the express request of the Association.

As an independent contractor, the Consultant shall not be entitled to any employee benefits of the Association.

Payment to the Consultant shall be by check payable to it. Such payment shall discharge the Association of any further obligation with regard to the services performed or expenses for which payment has been made.

IV. Restrictive Covenant

So long as this Agreement remains in effect, the Consultant agrees not to provide services for others, without the express consent of the Association, whether or not for compensation, for any matter which involves a conflict of interest with the Association.

V. Confidentiality

The Consultant acknowledges that in the course of performing assignments for the Association, the Consultant may be exposed to confidential and trade secret information of the Association. Any confidential information acquired by the Consultant shall not be disclosed by the Consultant to others or used for the Consultant's own benefit without the prior written consent of the Association. The obligations of the Consultant under this paragraph shall survive termination of this Agreement provided, however, that the Consultant's obligation to keep confidential shall not apply to information which a) was known to the Consultant, as evidenced by their written records, prior to the receipt of the disclosures; or b) was generally known to the public at the time of disclosure; or c) hereinafter becomes generally known to the public through no fault of the Consultant.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement in duplicate.
