<sup>1</sup>Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made this 5th day of July, 1991, by the NATIONAL UNION FOR THE TOTAL INDEPENDENCE OF ANGOLA (UNITA) and the Washington Public Affairs Group.

WHEREAS UNITA wishes to enhance its relationship with the United States in order to promote the objective of a free and democratic Angola and wishes to retain by this Agreement the services of the Washington Public Affairs Group for this purpose; and

WHEREAS the Washington Public Affairs Group agrees to work with UNITA to these ends:

THE PARTIES HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

ORGANIZATION AND MISSION

1. The principal objective of this Agreement is to ensure the continued support of the United States Government for a free Angola. To this end, the Washington Public Affairs Group will assist UNITA in its efforts to achieve a peaceful and just settlement of the conflict in Angola, to see that free and fair elections are held and that a viable democratic government is established there.
2. As the campaign to free Angola moves toward a successful conclusion, the Washington Public Affairs Group will assist in efforts to see that economic assistance is provided to a nation emerging from Marxist domination. Assistance will be sought from the United States and other governments as well as from international and multilateral financial institutions. In addition, the Washington Public Affairs Group will advise and assist UNITA regarding private economic development aimed at the encouragement of foreign investment, bilateral trade and the enhancement of self sustaining economic conditions in Angola.
3. The Washington Public Affairs Group will serve as an advisor to officials of UNITA on the political and economic matters discussed above. The principal point of contact between the Washington Public Affairs Group and UNITA will be the Chief Representative to the United States in Washington, D.C.

4. The Washington Public Affairs Group shall maintain an office in Washington, D.C. dedicated to the strengthening of the political, economic and security relationship between UNITA and the United States.

5. The Washington Public Affairs Group will formulate appropriate legislative strategies designed to see that the objectives UNITA seeks to achieve within the U.S. Congress are met. They will then assist UNITA in carrying out these strategies.

6. The Washington Public Affairs Group shall maintain contact with the United States Congress (both the House of Representatives and the Senate) and Congressional staff responsible for matters of importance to UNITA. They will also maintain contact with officials of the Executive Branch of the United States Government, including the White House, the National Security Council and the State Department.

They will maintain contact with international and multinational financial and banking institutions. Moreover, the Washington Public Affairs Group will contact the National Endowment for Democracy as well as other public and private organizations in order to help achieve the goals of UNITA.

In addition to informing UNITA of political and economic developments in the United States affecting their interests, the Washington Public Affairs Group shall provide to the above appropriate officials that information regarding UNITA and UNITA's positions that best advances the interests of UNITA.

7. To further assist in establishing and strengthening UNITA's image and credibility in the United States, the Washington Public Affairs Group will undertake public relations efforts which accurately present UNITA's positions and policies to the United States and the American people.

COMPENSATION AND TERMS

8. UNITA shall compensate the Washington Public Affairs Group by payment of the annual fee of $180,000 US. The fee shall cover the costs of services and expenses associated with the execution of these responsibilities. However, travel expenses out of the United States (air fare, lodging, food, etc.) shall be in addition to the above fee. Air travel shall be first class and tickets shall be prepaid. Other related expenses shall be submitted monthly for reimbursement within 60 days.

9. The fees shall be paid as follows:

a. Upon execution of this Agreement, payment of $90,000 US for retainer and first six months.

b. The balance ($90,000 US) shall be paid in one-half increments ($45,000 US) quarterly, in advance, for the following six month period.

c. The first year fee of $180,000 US shall be subject to annual revision at not less than the initial fee described above.

d. All payments shall be made by wire transfer to such bank accounts as may be designated in writing from time to time.

e. A point of contact within UNITA with authority for execution of all financial aspects of this Agreement shall be designated at time of signing of this Agreement:
