THE AMHARA PEOPLE FACING DANGER OF GENOCIDE

An evil campaign has been fired up in Ethiopia, by the regime in place and other extremist elements, to provoke violence and the mass slaughter of Amharas, considered by the TPLF/EPRDF regime and its supporters as the main enemy as a people. Inside the country and in the Diaspora, crazed extremist elements have been mobilized to call for the massacre of Amharas and some of these elements have even been guests of Western TV stations and radio programs given the chance to spread their propaganda of hatred.

The concern for the fate of the Amhara people is not an unjustified fear of the worst. The background of the regime in place clearly confirms that the catastrophe that looms is not an illusion. The ruling Tigray People's Liberation Front (or the EPRDF as it likes to be called now) defined its struggle back in 1975 as "anti-Amhara", the major ethnic group in Ethiopia next to the Oromos. Long before it took power in 1991, the Tigrean front now in power collaborated with the Eritrean front (EPLF) and the Oromo front (OLF) to attack Assossa in Wollega and to cause the massacre of hundreds of Amharas there. The Eritrean commander of the operation has proudly narrated in an interview how they "dealt" with the Amharas there. Some three hundred Amharas were killed, burnt alive and/or slaughtered. Video evidence of the horrible massacre is available. The alliance of the Tigrean front, the Oromo front and the Eritrean front or regime has always been stringently anti-Amhara and by extension anti-Ethiopia. These elements have for long equated being an Amhara with being for Ethiopia and as they consciously stood and still stand against Ethiopian identity they consider Amharas as the main enemy. Hence the conscious anti-Amhara campaign.

Once the TPLF took power using the name EPRDF as a cover, it let loose anti-Amhara elements to commit massacres of Amaharas in ARBAGUGU (the man who ordered the mass killings, Hassan Ali, is now a refugee in the USA if not an American citizen already. The OLF, led by Lencho Letta then (he now lives in Norway) undertook the brutal killings of Amharas in BEDENO in the East. Pregnant women were bayoneted, seniors and adults thrown down the cliff—carnage is the word to describe it. In Eastern Wollega too, the OLF has been involved in the murder of innocent Amharas. The extremist Oromiya Islamiya group has also been accused of the murder of nuns and monks in the Asebot monastery. The anti-Amhara campaign, which has now been reactivated, alleges that back in history Emperor Menelik and his troops has killed Oromos. The fanning of hatred and spirit of vengeance invokes dubious history to criminalize Amharas a hundred years later and to prepare genocide. A shameful monument to keep hatred and revenge alive has been inaugurated by the regime's officials. Even during the recent demonstration by students in Ambo extremists were heard shouting anti Amhara slogans. The regime in power has condoned and even fanned the ethnic cleansing of Amharas from various southern regions and even from Ambo town. Amharas are defenseless and victims of the State sponsored and backed campaign to kill or oust them from the lands they had lived in for centuries.

A feeling of impending doom has gripped all Amharas and Ethiopians who do believe in the unity of the country. Note should also be taken that the anti-Amhara campaign is being assisted by foreign elements and media who reecho false history and try to accuse Amharas as a people of being anti-Oromo. Ethiopian unity and sovereignty has always been challenged by foreign forces (the Napier expedition of the British, Mussolini's colonization attempt, etc.) who had tried to pit the people against one another. The fact remains that the present regime is based on ethnic domination of all Ethiopians including Amharas, Oromos, Somalis, Gurages, Anuaks ...etc. It has committed massacres in Gambella, the Ogaden, Sidama and other places too. But the threat against the Amharas has increased and is being aided by diaspora extremist elements who benefit from the American or British systems to call for the "slitting the throats" of all Amharas.

The danger is real and all the more serious because the ruling regime is also wobbling and trying to use the anti-Amhara campaign to gain support during the 2007 general "election".

The EPRP calls on the Amhara people and pan Ethiopian forces to defend themselves and condemns vigorously the ethnic cleansing, hatred and killings directed (and being prepared) against the Amhara people.

The EPRP also calls in earnest all Ethiopians, inside the country or abroad, to stand together against such divisive and hatred campaigns of the regime and extremist elements and foil all plans of ethnic cleansing - as they have shown their unity in front of such historical occasions.

YEMEN : RELEASE ANDARGATCHEW TSIKE IMMEDIATELY !

Andargatchew Tsige, the secretary general of the GINBOT 7 Movement, was transiting through Sana'a, Yemen, airport when he was apprehended by Yemeni immigration and security police and jailed incommunicado. Andargatchew has never done anything to Yemen's detriment.

On the other hand, Andargatchew had been sentenced to death in absentia by the tyrants in Addis Abeba for his political activity. He had been jailed before and was compelled to seek refuge in Britain and he is carrying a legitimate British passport. Apparently the warrant for his arrest has been handed to Yemen by the regime in Addis Abeba which is linked in a so called anti-terror pact with Yemen. The Ginbot 7 Movement had been conveniently labeled terrorist as one more example of the regime use of its anti-terror law that has practically defined political dissent as terrorism. If deported, and the regime in Addis Abeba is trying with fervor to realize it, Andargatchew will face a grave threat to his life and could very well be tortured, disappeared or killed. The detention of Andargatchew sets a dangerous precedence for all other opposition figures who may be accused by the regime in Addis Abeba and thereby intercepted when they travel. Yemen's act is illegal and condemnable as is the ongoing anti Ethiopian actions taken by it against refugees.

The EPRP strongly condemns the Yemeni authorities and demands the immediate release of Andargatchew Tsige. EPRP also calls on Ethiopians everywhere to mobilize against the detention and the possible act of deportation. Much to the chagrin of the Yemeni and Addis Abeba regimes the struggle of the people for democracy cannot be stopped by taking such illegal actions that are internationally condemnable.

RELEASE ANDARGATCHEW TSIKE NOW !!

THE US-AFRICA SUMMIT: AN EXERCISE IN FUTILITY

The US-Africa summit is vintage exercise in futility, a waste of the American taxpayer's money. For this summit, president Obama has invited the dregs and dictators of Africa to Washington DC, to wine and dine and, alas, to praise them by talking of a mirage of an economic growth, democratic progress and a bright future. Fiction par excellence.

The ugly cabal that has been invited to this summit include war mongers, enemies of the free press, mass murderers, embezzlers of billions, ethnic cleansers, and outright and cruel dictators who have ceded African sovereignty and land to the highest bidder. The curses of Africa are coming to Washington to applaud their own failures in democratic governance and economic development spewing out false statistics. In Ethiopia alone, more than half a million people (mostly children) are homeless, more than 7 million people need food aid, the rule of law is non-existent, ethnic cleansing is in full throttle, more than 35,000 political prisoners languish in dungeons, the press is muzzled and tyranny in place. Congo, CAR, Cameroon, Uganda, Djibouti, Gabon, Chad etc... the reality has nothing to do with what Obama and his guests would be surely talking about.

America has time and again failed to live up to its promise of no democracy no cooperation. President Obama, as those before him, cuddles and backs dictators in Africa. The premise of the summit is barren. The serious move towards solving problems in Africa requires not a summit of futility but a serious move to assure the rule of law and democratic governance in Africa. Demagogy and pomp are out of place. Land grab, child sale and human trafficking, systematic torture of prisoners, repression against dissent, jailing of journalists and dissenters, forced resettlement, sale of young girls to domestic slavery in the Middle East, deportation of refugees, trampling on the rights of people, corruption and a thieving ruling clan, sky rocketing inflation and poverty--realities that cannot be covered by false statistics and empty words call for recognition and solution. President Obama has given legitimacy to tyrants and dictators and his declared attempt to seek a solution for Africa falls flat and appears, as it should, as hypocritical. You cannot discuss the safety of the sheep with the fox, you cannot seek a solution to Africa's problems by calling to a meeting the creators and perpetrators of the basic problems, the dictators who are the real and primary problems of Africa.

A futile summit, a victory for the African tyrants and mass murderers!

EPRP POLITICAL PRISONERS EXECUTED BY THE RULING TPLF

A former leading member of the Tigrean People's Liberation Front, the ruling front in Ethiopia (aka EPRDF) has now revealed in a VOA interview (and in his new book) that EPRP leaders and veteran members captured and disappeared since June 1991 were actually all executed after a TPLF "court" sentenced all of them to death. TPLF leaders had refused to give any account on the fate of the disappeared listed below:

- Tsegaye Gebre Medhin (aka Debteraw); Leadership committee member;
 - Yishak Debretsion (Leadership committee member)
 - Sitotaw Hussein (Leadership committee member)
 - Belete Amha (Leadership committee member)
- and veteran members
- Desalegn Amsalu
 - Hagos Bezabih
 - Teklai H.Sellasié
 - Azanaw Demile (deported from the Sudan).

There is no report yet on the fate of those disappeared in Addis Abeba, Bahr Dar, Gamo Gofa and other places since 1993. Namely Ms Aberash Berta, Lemma Makonen, Tesfaye Kebede, Wondusirak Desta, Eyob Tekabe, Mot Baynor, Aynekulu, Yoseph and many others. Families, relatives and friends of the disappeared suffered for years not knowing the fate of their disappeared kin. Sad to note that several local and international human rights organizations failed to demand an account on the fate of the disappeared for reasons that they have not made clear up to now.

EPRP calls on all peace loving people and friends of the EPRP and Ethiopia to condemn the brutal murder of the leaders and members of the EPRP. There should be a campaign to bring those who ordered the summary executions to justice. Those who condemned and approved the extrajudicial killing of the victims are the following:

- The defunct Meles Zenawi;
- Seye Abrha (now claiming to be a dissident);
- Tewolde W. Berhan (the then political bureau member of the TPLF)
- Bereket Semon--still a minister in Addis Abeba
- Abay Tsehaye--still a minister and TPLF leader in Ethiopia;
- Alemseged (former political bureau member of the TPLF);
- Haileom Araya (military commander--now dead. Also responsible for the killing of exiled Jattene Ali in Nairobi);

Justice for the victims!

Punishment for the killers!

Release all political prisoners in Ethiopia !

EPRP FULLY SUPPORTS THE PEOPLE OF BURKINA FASO

The EPRP fully supports the ongoing struggle of the Burkinabe people against dictatorship and for democracy. Their struggle is a harbinger of intensified popular struggles all over the continent. Like other peoples, the Burkinabe people face the danger of the status quo army short-circuiting their victory to establish yet another demagogic military dictatorship.

Baise Compaore came to power via coup that ousted his long time and very popular friend Thomas Sankara. For the last 26 years, Compaore has stuck to his authoritarian rule and enjoyed the backing of France and other western powers. The people's demand for justice and democracy was stifled, the free press muzzled, dissent repressed without mercy. To add insult to injury, the dictator was out to change the Constitution to run for the same office in the oncoming election. Compaore has often rigged elections like the tyrants of Ethiopia. If the Burkainabe people's struggle triumphs it will be a great example for the whole of Africa and for Ethiopia in particular where a repressive and ethnic based system has been ruining the country and murdering the people for the last 23 years.

The EPRP supports the struggle of the people of Burkina Faso and stands against any attempt by the generals to usurp the victory of the people.

Down with all the dictators in Africa
Victory to the struggle of the African people for justice and liberty !
