

INSTRUCTIONS: A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements; or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. This form shall be filed in triplicate for each foreign principal named in the registration statement and must be signed by or on behalf of the registrant.

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530, and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

¹ Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

AGREEMENT FOR THE PROVISION OF SERVICES

Between

Samuels International Associates, Inc. ("SIA")
21 Dupont Circle, N.W., Suite 300 East
Washington, D.C. 20036

And

Embassy of the Republic of Angola ("Client")
1819 L St., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

A. Services

SIA and the Client agree that SIA will perform services for the Client to achieve the objectives set out in a work program mutually developed and agreed upon by both parties.

B. Term

The term of this agreement shall be from February 11, 1995 through August 10, 1995. Thereafter, this agreement will be continued and a new contract agreed on, unless either party gives 30 days notice. Before the continuation, both parties will meet to review the work program, evaluate progress in achieving the goals of the previous period, and make appropriate revisions to the work program and the retainer agreement as deemed necessary and appropriate by both SIA and the Client.

C. Payment

1. Professional Fees and Normal Expenses: The Client agrees to retain the services of SIA to perform the services described in Part A. (above) for $200,000. The first tranch of $100,000 will be due on the signing of this contract, and the next tranch of equal value will be due three months later. The sum is intended both for the professional services rendered under this agreement and for normal expenses, e.g., telephone, telefax, photocopying, etc.

2. Additional Expenses: In addition to the professional fees and normal expenses referred to above, SIA will be reimbursed by the Client for expenses beyond those considered to be included in the normal pursuit of this contract. These will include special efforts for visiting delegations, transcripts and video copies of media presentations on Angola, video reproductions, special translations done by outside translators, and any major entertainment expenses. Such expenses will not be charged to the Client without the prior approval of the Client.

D. Additional Services

1. From time to time, the Client may request services from SIA in addition to those described above. Such additional services will only be provided after approval by the Client. Payment for such additional services will be negotiated and approved by the Client before the provision of services and will be due upon receipt of an invoice from SIA, unless otherwise agreed at the time.

2. It is expected that travel to Angola by SIA associates could be necessary and/or useful during the course of this contract. Financial arrangements for such travel will be agreed on before hand between SIA and the Client.

3. Nothing in this contract or in the formal arrangement between SIA and the client would interfere with SIA's having corporate clients with either an investment or a trading interest in Angola. In any such corporate client relationship, SIA will inform the Client in advance. In any relationship with such a corporate client, the interests of the Government of Angola will always have priority.

E. Confidentiality

SIA agrees to keep confidential the goals of the work program, the terms of payment, and plans for action to the extent possible without infringing the laws of the United States.
