- Promotion of increased trade and direct foreign investment in Bolivia;
- Periodic reports including: insights regarding US political developments, especially those that have the potential to impact Bolivia and Latin America; real-time review of Congressional statements and news articles as appropriate; and progress of our joint efforts.

Our initial representation of the Government of Bolivia will be for six months, beginning on January 1, 2000, and will be renewable for consecutive six month periods with the mutual agreement of both parties.

We have agreed that a retainer of $150,000 would be appropriate for our initial program of activities, billed quarterly. Such retainer would include all expenses except international travel, as mutually determined. Additionally, we would ask for first consideration for any and all legal work that comes available, for example in cases concerning countervailing duties or anti-dumping matters to which Bolivia or Bolivian industry is a party.

This agreement will not take effect until you return a signed copy of this agreement, but the effective date of this agreement will be January 1, 2000. You may terminate this agreement with 30 calendar days written notice for failure on the part of Manatt, Phelps & Phillips to perform its duties as described in this agreement, in which event you will remain responsible for the payment of fees and expenses incurred on account of activities already undertaken as part of our representation. In the event a dispute should arise concerning our fees and expenses, all aspects of any such dispute shall be submitted to binding arbitration pursuant to the Attorney Client Arbitration Board established by the District of Columbia Bar.

We greatly appreciate this opportunity to be of service to you, and look forward to a long and productive relationship.

Sincerely,
