RE: Letter of Engagement

Dear Chris:

As required under the rules of professional conduct of the District of Columbia, this will confirm that you continue to engage Patrick Fazzone to advise and assist the Australian Dairy Corporation in connection with policy, regulatory and legislative developments in the United States that are of interest and/or concern to the Australian dairy industry. Consistent with good business practices, and applicable professional rules, it is my practice to inform clients, in writing, of the basis for all charges. Please review this letter, and sign and return one original for my files.

As under previous arrangements I will continue to bill the Australian Dairy Corporation the amount of US$8500.00 plus disbursements each month. Part of that amount will be paid to Collier Shannon Rill & Scott, LLC for Bob Porter's services especially in connection with legislative developments. Expenses may include photocopying, messenger and delivery services, computerized on-line research, long distance telephone and fax charges, travel expenses and any governmental filing or search fees. Photocopy charges will be billed at $0.10 per page. Fax charges will be billed at $1.25 per page international, $0.25 per page domestic long distance, and $0.10 per page for local calls. Long distance telephone and computerized research charges and remaining expenses will be charged at cost.

As in the past, I will render monthly statements of account to you, detailing the work done on the ADC's behalf, and the expenses posted to your account. By the signature below, you agree to pay each statement in full upon receipt.

You acknowledge that modifications of this agreement must be in writing, signed by each of us.

If the foregoing accurately reflects your understanding of the scope and terms of my engagement please countersign in the space indicated below and return one original to me for my files.

I look forward as always to being of continued service to the Australian Dairy Industry.

Sincerely,

Patrick B. Fazzone

Agreed and Accepted:
