Dear Chuck:

In September of 2007, the Utrok Atoll Local Government (UALGOV) delegation arrived in Washington, D.C. for a Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee hearing on issues related to the Marshall Islands.

At that time, Utrok's Counsel, John Masek, informed me that there was an additional $2,500 in the budget for VSA federal services. We (VSA and the UALGOV delegation) orally agreed to bill UALGOV for expenses incurred in furtherance of VSA work performed on their behalf during the period from the beginning of October 2006 until the end of 2007.

I am sorry that I failed to inform you earlier of this development related to Utrok.

Cordially,

Peter J. Evich
