Response to Question 11

On behalf of TECRO, the Registrant seeks to improve U.S.-Taiwan relations and build public awareness about Taiwan. To advance these objectives, the Registrant arranges briefings and meetings with U.S. government officials which may include Taiwanese officials, as well as attends or participates in meetings, discussions or events related to U.S.-Taiwan relations. In addition, as requested by the foreign principal, the Registrant will render advice and undertake advocacy measures on relevant legislative, regulatory, and public policy activities of interest.

On behalf of SIGCo, the Registrant provides government relations and related public communications services to assist SIGCo in understanding the political environment and achieving their business goals. Such services may be achieved through monitoring, attendance or participation in congressional hearings and other appropriate meetings, events and outreach.
