Trade Counsel Agreement

This Agreement is made on the 2nd day of December 2002, between Loeffler Jonas and Tuggey LLP (hereinafter referred to as the "Trade Counsel"), a firm having offices situated at 755 East Mulberry, Suite 200, San Antonio, Texas 78212, and at 1801 K Street NW, Suite 340, Washington, D.C. 20006, and The Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia to the United States, Washington, D.C. (hereinafter referred to as the "Mission") to advance the diplomatic function of the Mission through the performance of legal services in the areas of trade and government relations and to assess, protect, promote, assist, and develop the Mission's economic and trade interests in the United States. It is hereby agreed as follows:

1. This Agreement shall commence on December 1, 2002, and shall continue thereafter until November 30, 2003, unless terminated in accordance with paragraph 8 below.
2. During the currency of this Agreement, the Trade Counsel agrees to:
 - (a) provide full legal and government relations services to the diplomatic function of the Mission in relation to departments and agencies of the United States, including the White House (Executive Branch) and the Congress of the United States (Legislative Branch) with regard to trade issues and other possible actions affecting the interests of the Mission; and
 - (b) research and monitor legislative and administrative activities that may affect the diplomatic function and trade interests of the Mission and to develop, in conjunction with the Mission, strategic plans to pursue those trade interests.
3. The Trade Counsel also agrees to provide advice, support and assistance in:
 - (a) identifying key trade policy makers in the U.S. Congress and Administration who may have a bearing on policies affecting the trade interests of the Mission, U.S. participation in World Trade Organization agreements, and trade legislation (including presidential trade promotion authority);
 - (b) establishing and maintaining close working relationships with key members of the U.S. Congress, the Administration, and quasi-governmental and non-governmental organizations;

2002 DEC 11 1:40 PM
COMM/ISS/REGISTRATION UNIT

- (c) developing a program to convey the Mission's trade stance to all levels of contacts;
 - (d) gathering information that may affect the trade interests of the Mission; and
 - (e) arranging for delegations from the Mission and officials of the Mission based in the U.S. to meet selected Members of the U.S. Congress, Members of the U.S. Administration, and other organizations.
4. Trade Counsel shall be an independent contractor to, and not an agent or employee of, the Mission. Trade Counsel shall not assign or otherwise dispose of any interest, right, benefit or obligation under this Agreement. Trade Counsel warrants that the consultancy services will be performed and completed in a professional manner and that the Trade Counsel team shall be as approved by the Mission and that the Trade Counsel team shall use all proper and professional skill, care and diligence in the performance of the consultancy services and the discharge of all duties and obligations under this Agreement.
5. During the currency of this Agreement and for three (3) years thereafter, Trade Counsel will not, without prior written consent of the Mission, accept any engagement or otherwise render any services to other individuals, firms, corporations or entities in connection with any government affairs or legislative matters or activities that involve interests or positions in conflict with those of the Mission of which Trade Counsel is or ought reasonably to be aware. In cases where the conflict or potential conflict is in doubt, Trade Counsel will accordingly first seek the Mission's views as to the applicability of this paragraph. For its part, the Mission agrees that it will not require Trade Counsel to decline an engagement unless the Mission is satisfied that any such engagement could have an adverse impact on the effectiveness of Trade Counsel's services herein.
6. The Mission has an expectation of confidentiality as to all documents and communications relating to this agreement as all such information relates to the Mission and its functions. The Mission's files and documents in Trade Counsel's possession shall be deemed consular documents belonging to the Mission within the meaning of the Vienna Convention On Consular Relations, and Trade Counsel shall hold them as custodian for the Mission. The Mission's files and documents shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties unless such disclosure is compelled by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction that is final and not subject to further appeal or review. The Trade Counsel shall use its best endeavors to ensure that all members of its staff comply with the requirements of this provision. This obligation shall not apply to information i) previously known to the Trade Counsel as evidenced by its records; ii) subsequently otherwise acquired by the Trade Counsel from third party having an independent right to disclose the information; iii) which is now or later becomes publicly known through no fault of the Trade Counsel.

7. In consideration of the performance of the consultancy services and undertakings of the Trade Counsel during the term of this Agreement:
 - (a) The Mission will pay Trade Counsel the sum of $840,000.00 USD as consultancy fee. This fee shall be paid in four (4) installments of $210,000.00 USD. The first such installment shall be paid on or before December 1, 2002. The additional three installments shall be due, respectively, on the first day of March, June and September, 2003.
 - (b) Reasonable and ordinary expenses such as mobile telephone long distance charges and facsimile and photocopying costs will not be charged to the Mission.
 - (c) The Mission shall reimburse Trade Counsel for all approved extraordinary out-of-pocket expenses (such as expenses for international travel, business and other communications, and other relevant expenses) incurred on behalf of the Mission in connection with the performance of services herein during the currency of this Agreement. Such expenses shall be reimbursed upon submission of monthly statements together with relevant vouchers, invoices, receipts and other evidence to the Mission;
 - (d) Both parties agree to a timely review of the terms of this Agreement.
8. Either party may terminate this Agreement by written notice to the other party hereto, not less than thirty days (30) prior to the date upon which such termination is to become effective. Breach of any conditions contained in this Agreement by either party shall entitle the other party to terminate this Agreement forthwith. If this Agreement is terminated at any time before the 30th of November, 2003, the fees shall be prorated to cover the period prior to termination.
9. Any dispute arising out of this Agreement or Trade Counsel's provision of services hereunder shall be resolved by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules as now in effect and as hereafter amended or revised. Arbitration shall take place in
