1. Responsibilities

Mr. Mitchell will act as a political and public relations consultant to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Mongolia from 15th August 2014 to 15th December 2014 assisting the Ministry with strengthening bilateral economic ties with the U.S.; improving the Ministry's public relations capacity at highlighting the investment opportunities in Mongolia; assisting the Ministry in identifying and targeting prospective businesses for investment in Mongolia; and identifying and targeting non government organizations (NGOs) for partnership opportunities with Mongolian counterpart organizations as well as U.S. and Mongolian government entities.

2. Services

The consultancy service shall include the followings:

- Identify and bring together decision-makers: Utilize existing fora and, if necessary, assist in the creation of new mechanisms that bring together business and political leaders that will strengthen the ability of the Ministry to increase foreign investment into Mongolia.
- Provide counsel on developmental, legal, political, economic and social issues and how those impact trade and foreign investment flows into Mongolia.
- Provide information/memoranda on deepening the political ties between the U.S. and Mongolia at the congressional and administration levels.
- Assist the Ministry in creating and/or enhancing programs/projects in environmental protection, energy, and science as well as the defense and security sectors.
- Provide the Ministry with names of prospective journalists who would be willing to travel to Mongolia to examine the country's economic, political, and social successes.
- Assist the Embassy in establishing U.S.-Mongolia Friendship Caucus of the 114th United States Congress.
- Assist the Ministry in establishing contacts with U.S. and international institutions that can serve to strengthen Mongolia's banking and financing sectors.
- Assist in editing speeches and press releases for Ministry officials for delivery before key audiences and distribution through media.

- Provide regular analysis on U.S. policy towards Mongolia in particular and the region in general, and identify points of enhanced cooperation between Mongolia and the U.S.
- A summary of monthly activities in memorandum form shall be submitted both to the Ministry and the Embassy.
- All information, analysis and proposals relating to the consulting service provided by Mr. Mitchell shall be submitted to the Embassy.

Time of activities

Mr. Mitchell is free to design his own working time. He shall regularly discuss with the Ambassador on planned and implemented measures with the Embassy of Mongolia in D.C.

3. Remuneration

Mr. Mitchell will receive a monthly allowance of 5,000.00 USD inclusive of the applicable taxes. The remunerations paid on the 30th of every month. Receipt of payment by Mr. Mitchell shall be submitted to the Ministry.

Expenses (travel expenses, office expenses, etc.) are additionally reimbursed to Mr. Mitchell at per monthly rate of 1,500.00 USD.

Mr. Mitchell receives no payment in case of illness or vacation.

Mr. Mitchell is responsible for the taxation of compensation. The same applies to health insurance and pensions.

4. Duty of confidentiality, publication of the Embassy property

Mr. Mitchell is committed to keep confidentiality of business and trade secrets as well as classified information that were made available to him due to his work. All work remains confidential following the conclusion of the contract.

Mr. Mitchell is committed to return to the Embassy all documents in the form of copies, diskettes etc. provided to him for completion of his tasks at any time by the request of the client and at the termination of the contract. Right of retention is excluded.

5. Copyright

Mr. Mitchell transmits to the Embassy of Mongolia the full and exclusive right to use the services rendered by him during his consultancy. He agrees at any time requested to provide and make available his materials. The remuneration paid to the transfer of usage rights is settled.

6. Status and Agreement of Termination

The contract is effective from 15th August 2014 to 15th December 2014.

The contract may be prematurely terminated during afore mentioned period by both sides by the end of the month upon one month period notification. The Ministry retains the right to immediate termination of the agreement at any time.

Through this agreement, an employment relationship is not established. Mr. Mitchell is not an employee of the Foreign Ministry or the Government of Mongolia.

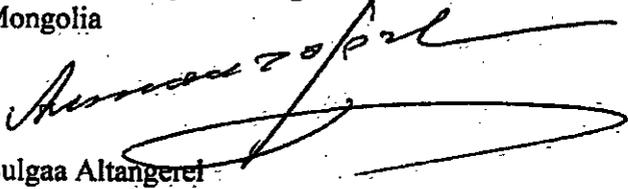

7. Agreement amendments, severability clause

Collateral agreements and amendments to the contract shall be legally effective in writing. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, the remaining provisions will not be affected.

Signed at Washington, D.C. on September 2, 2014 in two originals, in the English language, all texts having equal validity.

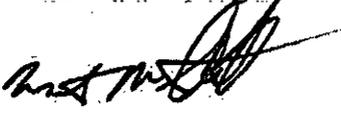

Signed,
