Re: Terms of Engagement

Dear Mr. President:

Now that Senator Dole and his team have moved to Alston & Bird (the "Firm"), we are pleased and excited that Kosova has chosen to move with us and continue this productive relationship. The purpose of this letter is to confirm the terms of our overall engagement.

This engagement will be effective February 1, 2003, and will continue in effect until January 31, 2004, unless otherwise agreed by Alston & Bird and Kosova. During our engagement, you agree to pay the Firm a monthly retainer of $30,000. Throughout the period of this engagement, we will issue monthly statements for our services rendered in the previous month, payment due upon receipt. In addition to fees, these statements will include, where appropriate, charges for related expenses and services, such as photocopying, computerized research, long distance telephone, telecopy, word processing, business meals, filing fees, etc. to the extent required by a particular assignment. Such expenses will not exceed $3,000 per month.

In the event that Kosova requests and Senator Dole agrees to undertake any travel, including a trip to Kosova for any purpose related to this retainer, Kosova agrees to pay round-trip First Class air travel for him and two others, plus hotel and related expenses. Representatives of the Firm will not undertake any travel on Kosova's behalf outside of Washington, D.C. without prior authorization by Kosova.

During the period of the retainer, Senator Dole will actively participate in and supervise our day-to-day work under this agreement. All work will be coordinated from his office. Our team would include members of his immediate staff, and, on an as-needed basis, other lawyers in the Firm and their assistants who have particular expertise in the issues under consideration. Senator Dole's representatives will meet regularly with your representatives and coordinate with them by telephone as frequently as necessary. The management and supervision of the engagement shall be under Senator Dole's direct control and supervision, and no activity relating to Kosova shall be generated without his or my representatives' explicit direction and approval.

The following activities are among those we are prepared to continue on Kosova's behalf:

- Work with Kosova to advance Kosova's goals of: close bilateral relations with the United States; stable and productive relations between Kosova and European nations; and the formal recognition of the Independence of Kosova.
- Help key decision-makers and opinion-makers in the United States properly appreciate Kosova's progress by providing a detailed, correct, and balanced understanding of various issues in Kosova and the entire Balkan region, including governmental process, politics, military and security and intelligence concerns, human rights matters, anti-corruption efforts, and the economy.
- Conduct and render assistance for meetings with Members and staff of the United States Senate and House of Representatives; and render assistance for meetings with key officials in selected departments and agencies of the Executive Branch and independent commissions.
- Advise and assist Kosova in dealing with legislation pending in the Congress which could have both positive and adverse impacts on the economic, political, security, or diplomatic relationships between Kosova and the United States; and work to improve further Kosova's positive relations with the Congress.
- Assist Kosova in promoting greater appreciation and recognition in the United States of Kosova's ongoing role as a friend and economic partner of the United States. Assist Kosova in encouraging United States business and individuals to make foreign investments in and visit Kosova, and to purchase goods and services from Kosova.
- Meet as necessary with officials of Kosova, and speak regularly by telephone with Kosova's designated officials.
- The Firm shall also work closely, as necessary, with U.S. non-governmental organizations, academics, and other experts who share Kosova's goals.
- Through close coordination with your staff, we are also prepared to undertake other special assignments on your behalf, provided that they are mutually agreed to by both parties.

We are also prepared to provide additional legal services, beyond the scope of the abovementioned retainer, at your request. If you request such services, we will provide, on an as-needed basis, other lawyers in the Firm and their assistants who have particular expertise in the issues under consideration. You would be billed for these services, separately from and in addition to the $30,000 monthly retainer, based on the hourly rates of the relevant lawyers.

As you can appreciate, the attorney-client privilege is an important subject that we raise with our clients at the outset of any new representation. As a matter of professional responsibility, we are required to preserve the confidences of our clients, and this professional obligation and the legal privilege accorded attorney-client communication exist to encourage candid and complete communication between client and attorney. The attorney-client privilege, however, can be lost if our written or oral communications are shared inappropriately with others, including, under certain circumstances, other employees or representatives of Kosova. We should always, therefore, discuss in advance any intention on the part of Kosova to include others in our confidential relationship.

Moreover, as in any professional relationship where mutual trust and confidence are essential, it is appropriate for either Kosova or Alston & Bird to be able to terminate our engagement at any time, by reasonable written notice. If our engagement is terminated, we understand that Kosova will take whatever steps are necessary to evidence that we are free from any obligation to perform further, and to pay us for unpaid fees, charges for related expenses, and services incurred to the date of termination. For clients who are not regular, general clients of the firm, but who hire us as special counsel for a limited engagement, an additional condition of our acceptance of this engagement is an agreement that our acceptance of this limited engagement shall not preclude our firm from representing other clients in the future who may have adverse interests with respect to matters unrelated to this limited engagement. We consider our representation of Kosova to fall into this category.

We would appreciate your acknowledging, on behalf of Kosova, that this letter correctly reflects the terms of our engagement by signing, dating, and returning to me the enclosed copy of this letter. There is space for your acknowledgement below my signature.

Again, we are delighted that Alston & Bird will be representing Kosova for the purposes described herein, and we thank you for choosing us. We look forward with enthusiasm and appreciation to working with you. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 202-756-3303 or Marshall Harris at 202-654-4857.

Sincerely,
