Arturo Sarukhan
International Affairs Coordinator
Felipe Calderón for President Campaign

Dear Arturo,

Zemi Communications is pleased to offer to the Felipe Calderón for President Campaign assistance in increasing the understanding in the United States of the issues in the Mexican presidential campaign race and of the policy positions and proposals of the candidate. We believe that there is substantial interest in Mexico's presidential race, and that the public interest in both countries will benefit from a full and accurate understanding of the campaign.

Zemi Communications will:

- Provide assistance in arranging meetings or interviews for representatives of the Campaign with U.S. media and opinion leaders;
- Provide counsel on communicating Mr. Calderón's policy positions and proposals in the manner that will have the greatest resonance with U.S. audiences;
- Provide counsel on presenting Campaign issues to U.S. audiences; and
- Provide monitoring of U.S. media coverage of the Mexican presidential election, as well as of the activities of policy institutes and think tanks interested in Mexican-U.S. relations.

Zemi is prepared to provide these services to the Campaign on a pro bono basis through July 15, 2006. This letter agreement may be terminated at any time prior to that date by either party.

Zemi and the Campaign understand and agree that the activities described above will not include any activities that would be considered to be campaigning outside of Mexico or solicitation of votes by the candidate or his representatives under Mexican law or regulation.

The parties also understand and agree that certain of the activities described above may fall under the provisions of the U.S. Foreign Agents Registration Act ("FARA"). Zemi will make such registration and file such periodic reports of its activities as required under FARA.

The parties also agree, for themselves and on behalf of each of their members, officers, directors, employees and agents to maintain the confidentiality of all information, reports, studies, oral advice, or other documents or information provided to each other hereunder, to the extent permitted by law. This confidentiality provision will survive any termination of this agreement.

We look forward to a productive relationship with the Campaign and are eager to begin working on your behalf. I have enclosed two signed copies of this letter agreement. If the terms and conditions described above are consistent with your understanding, please sign and return one of the copies.

Yours truly,

Alan J. Stoga
President
