Question 11

Embassy of the Republic of Korea

Covington & Burling LLP was engaged to provide advice on a legislative initiative for professional visas for Korean citizens and increase support for the legislation based on the unique attributes of the U.S.-Korea economic partnership, as evidenced in the Korea-U.S. Free Trade Agreement. Covington & Burling LLP engaged with relevant leaders in the U.S. Congress, Executive Branch, business community, media, and organized labor to build support for the proposal and corresponding justifications.

Embassy of New Zealand

Covington & Burling LLP will develop a legislative solution and strategy for facilitating greater trade and investment between the United States and New Zealand by improving temporary entry for New Zealanders into the United States. Covington & Burling LLP engages with relevant leaders in the U.S. Congress, Executive Branch, media, think tanks, and the business community to build support for the legislative proposal and corresponding justifications.

Government of Spain

Covington assists the Government of Spain with U.S. legislative and related policy matters potentially affecting the interests of Spain with respect to sunken vessels and their remains, including potential amendments to the Sunken Military Craft Act. As detailed in the registration filed on June 3, 2011, Covington also serves as counsel to Spain in litigation related to sunken vessels and their remains. During this period, Covington has not engaged in activities requiring registration under FARA for the Government of Spain.
