'CONTRACT FOR LEGAL SERVICES BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF MEXICO, VIA THE CONSULATE OF MEXICO IN TUCSON, ARIZONA AND ATTORNEY GREGORY J. KUYKENDALL, REGARDING THE MEXICAN CAPITAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (MCLAP) IN THE UNITED STATES.'

This contract establishes the agreement between the Government of Mexico, through the Consulate of Mexico in Tucson, Arizona, and attorney Gregory J. Kuykendall, of Kuykendall & Associates, P.C., for anticipated legal services related to the Mexican Capital Legal Assistance Program (hereinafter "the Program.") Mexico has established the Program to assist its nationals subjected to the death penalty in the United States. This contract establishes the obligations of each of the parties to this contract and it is governed by the laws of the United States of America.

1. Scope of the Contract: Gregory J. Kuykendall, a United States lawyer, who has represented a number of foreign nationals in death penalty proceedings, agrees to provide legal services to the Mexican government in cases wherein Mexican nationals face the death penalty in the United States.

Attorney Gregory J. Kuykendall will be the Director of the Program. Among other duties, attorney Kuykendall will prepare model motions and legal materials that can be used to assist Mexican nationals litigate international law issues – in particular issues related to the rights of consular notification laid out in the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations – before U.S. courts and international tribunals; as well as put forth additional efforts to impede the imposition of the death penalty on Mexican nationals; act as a "friend of the court" (amicus curiae) in those cases where courts are considering issues of international law, and where appropriate, file legal claims to make more effective the protections derived from international law.

HSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT
2009 OCT 19 AM 10:46

In addition, Gregory J. Kuykendall will provide, in coordination with the Legal Advisor's Office (CJA) and the General Directorate for the Protection of Mexicans Abroad (DGPME) of the Mexican Secretary of Foreign Relations (SRE), trainings and assistance to consular employees and personnel of the SRE relative to specific legal issues and legal strategies in death penalty cases. The expenses and costs of putting on the regional trainings, seminars and courses held in the U.S. and Mexico (except for the costs of travel and transportation of the consular and SRE employees) will be covered by Program funds.

Generally speaking, attorney Kuykendall will not take on the direct representation of Mexican nationals facing the death penalty, as the goal of the Program is to benefit as many defendants as possible. However, in specific cases, attorney Kuykendall could get involved in the direct defense of a Mexican national or of a foreign national, if his calendar of activities permitted it and if such representations were compatible with Program objectives, as determined by attorney Kuykendall and the Mexican government.

2. Obligations of Attorney Kuykendall: Attorney Kuykendall will provide, on a quarterly basis, all receipts of the costs of activities related to the Program that exceed $300.00 USD (three hundred U.S. dollars), as well as the invoices and proof of payment to Program lawyers and other professionals who have assisted in the work of the Program. The aforementioned documentation will be sent to the Consulate of Mexico in Tucson, Arizona.

The exercise, administration, accountability, (as in preparing invoices), documentation of fees and costs, payment of services, and other accounting proofs shall be accomplished according to accepted and customary practices in the United States legal community. Such customary administration and documentation shall include, but not be limited to, the payment of past due bills, and fees for attorneys and specialists that occur out of the ordinary billing cycle, and abided by terms agreed between the Director and other attorneys and specialists. Additionally, Attorney Kuykendall will provide, as per the written request of and through DGPME, all the information and documentation related to the Program expenditures and administration, when so required by other competent areas of the Mexican Secretary of Foreign Relation for administrative verification purposes.

Attorney Gregory J. Kuykendall will keep and provide all receipts for the costs of the regional training, conferences, seminars and courses, mentioned in paragraph 3 (three) of section 1 "Scope of the Contract".

The costs, as opposed to legal fees, that are anticipated to be paid by Attorney Kuykendall shall include: long-distance phone calls, facsimile, photocopy, transportation, room and board, travel expenses for private investigators, mitigation specialists and expert witness, computerized legal research, computer scanning and organization of document fees and related costs, as well as other costs related with the administration of the Program.

The aforementioned costs will be reimbursed to Attorney Kuykendall, once services have been rendered, except on those cases where legal or otherwise practical conditions and circumstances imply urgency to provide and guarantee legal representation and or assistance for Mexican nationals in order to avoid undoable results. The disbursement of the Program's funds for the attention of cases will not require previous authorization from CJA and DGPME.

Attorney Kuykendall will provide quarterly reports detailing his work and the activities of the Program. Attorney Kuykendall will also provide standardized quarterly reports detailing Program expenses, including hourly billing statements as well as the aforementioned receipts.

Attorney Kuykendall will charge the Government of Mexico a fee of $245.00 USD (two hundred and forty five U.S. dollars) per hour to compensate him for assuming the responsibilities of the Director. Attorney Kuykendall has agreed to reduce his ordinary hourly rate for the Mexican government, in order to be able to assist the greatest number of Program cases.

Attorney Kuykendall will also request the collaboration of other attorneys and paralegals and other professionals to assist with advancing the objectives of the Program. Program Attorneys will be paid at the rate of $175.00 USD (one hundred and seventy five U.S. dollars) per hour. Paralegals and other professionals will be compensated at a lesser hourly rate, which will be determined by the Director of the Program.

In addition, with the goal of following all cases wherein Mexican nationals are condemned to death or risk such a sentence, attorney Kuykendall will maintain a data base of information regarding such cases and any violations of Article 36 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, as well as data regarding the alleged facts of the crime, the circumstances of the arrest, the defense lawyers and other relevant issues.

At all times, attorney Kuykendall will be in constant communication with CJA and DGPME in order to achieve the objectives of the Program.

3. Obligations of the Mexican Government: The Mexican government will deposit the sum of $3,500,000.00 USD (three million five hundred thousand U.S. dollars), into the account of the Mexican Consulate in Tucson, Arizona, which shall transfer the funds to the bank account established by attorney Kuykendall to this effect, in conformance with the norms of professional conduct of the State Bar of Arizona, state in which attorney Kuykendall maintains his law office.

Said amount will cover the costs, expenses and legal fees of the Program, from the date of the signing of this contract. The funds shall be allocated and disbursed as described in the 'Budget Proposal for MCLAP' (Annex I). However, the sums not so expended could be allocated to other concepts described in the Budget, as determined by Attorney Kuykendall to properly fulfill the Programs' objectives. Excluded from the aforementioned, are the concepts "Honorarios del Director del Programa" (Director's fees); "Honorarios por concepto de Administración, Coordinación y Contabilidad del Programa" (Administration, Coordination and Accounting fees) and "Honorarios de los Asistentes Legales (Paralegals fees). The amounts allocated to these concepts can not be modified by transfer to or from other concepts.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Neither the Mexican government nor attorney Kuykendall can predict the number of Mexican nationals who will require Program assistance.

Once a given case is included in the Program, attorney Kuykendall will determine how to best assist the Mexican national with the assistance of attorneys, experts, investigators, paralegals and other professionals.

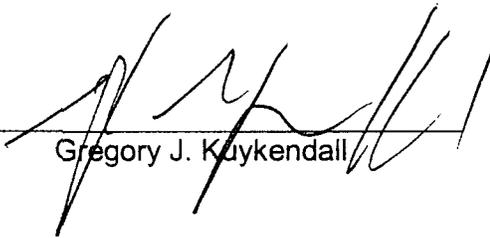

The term of the contract will last until the 31st of May, 2010. However, either of the parties to this contract can terminate it before that date. In that event, or if it is not renewed, attorney Kuykendall is professionally obligated to provide legal services beyond that date, until both parties negotiate accordingly. The Mexican government will guarantee sufficient funds to cover the costs, expenses and fees of said services.

Any disputes or controversies between the parties to this contract arising from its interpretation and fulfillment shall be resolved in the Federal Court in the State of Arizona.

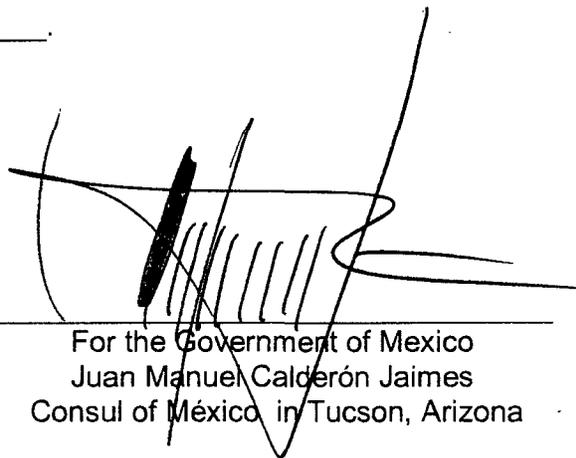

Finally, the cases listed in Annex II to this document shall be formally incorporated into the Program upon the formal execution of this contract. Once signed this contract will be wholly valid and binding on both parties.

This contract is signed in Spanish and English, by quadruplicated.
