ITEM 11 – INSERT

2009 OCT 29 AM 11:04
CRM/ISS/REGISTRATION UNIT

During the reporting period, the Registrant provided strategic communications advice to the Prime Minister of Canada and his office with respect to communicating to the U.S. public the positions and views of the Prime Minister with respect to issues discussed at the G-20 Leaders' Summit on Financial Markets and the World Economy held in London on April 2, 2009. In addition, in advance of the G-20 Summit, the Registrant arranged meetings of the Prime Minister with U.S. journalists; arranged interviews of the Prime Minister by U.S. journalists; and arranged appearances of the Prime Minister on television news and interview shows in the U.S., all as detailed in the response to Item 12 of this Supplemental Statement.

The purpose of these activities was to articulate the position of the Government of Canada with respect to the issues considered and discussed at the G-20 Summit, by educating and informing the U.S. public about the views and positions of the Government of Canada with respect to those issues, in order to promote Canada's international objectives.

During the reporting period, the Registrant also advised the Government of Canada about communicating, to the U.S. public, the positions and views of the Government of Canada on a range of economic, trade and international issues, particularly the Durban Review ("Durban II") Conference held in Geneva, Switzerland from April 20-24, 2009. The Registrant invited several U.S. reporters to participate in a telephone news conference with the Prime Minister concerning Durban II, as detailed in the response to item 12 of this Supplemental Statement.

The purpose of these activities was to articulate the position of the Government of Canada with respect to the issues considered and discussed at the Durban II conference, as well as with respect to other international issues, by educating and informing the U.S. public about the views and positions of the Government of Canada regarding those issues, again in order to promote Canada's international objectives.
