Dear Mr. Waldman,

On behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation I would like to express full support and appreciation for your efforts, including visa-vis the U.S. Government, in order to explore unambiguous, multi-entry visa status to enter the United States for Mr. Oleg V. Deripaska.

Mr. Deripaska is one of our country's prominent business leaders who controls or directly manages a significant number of enterprises, which employ hundreds of thousands of people in Russia and globally and serve as an engine for the domestic and international economy. Businesses of Mr. Deripaska maintain diversified commercial relations with customers and suppliers in the United States to the benefit of the American economy. Yet, over the past several years, there has been certain ambiguity upon his visa status in the United States. A persistent state of limbo regarding Mr. Deripaska's ability to travel freely between our two countries has become an impediment to the promotion of mutually advantageous contacts between the business communities of the two countries.

As a matter of context and background, I would like to mention that the Russian side has raised this issue with various U.S. officials on numerous occasions, including in the course of bilateral discussions with both the White House and the State Department at different levels. I believe that the involvement of your firm will contribute to the ongoing efforts aimed at achieving a successful resolution of this problem by engaging the legal instruments and mechanisms available under U.S. law. I would appreciate it if you could periodically provide us with updates on the progress in your work. The findings of your enquiry will be taken into consideration in our dialogue with the U.S. Government in this regard.

Yours sincerely,

S. LAVROV
